Course description:
This course is a survey of Arabic culture from the sixth century to the present. It mainly focuses on Islamic civilization and culture of the people of the Middle East and North Africa.

Course Objectives:
By the conclusion of this course, it is expected that students will:
- have deeper understanding of the Arabs’ culture, with special reference to history, religion, society, politics, and art, as well as to the Arabs’ contributions to medicine, science, mathematics and architecture;
- be familiar with and be able to assess and evaluate misconceptions about Arabs and Arabic culture;
- develop deeper understanding of own culture through comparison with the target culture;
- Get a direction toward more research in the emerging academic field of the anthropology of the Arab World

N.B. The course has a writing requirement (WR) – 6000 words.

6000 words WR as shown in detail below

I will have office hours two days a week right after class. Please do come to see me if you need help.

Course requirements:

9 discussions 2x9 = 18
8 quizzes 2x8 = 16
3 presentations 5x3 = 15
Book review = 15
paper (topic 2 + final 28) = 30
participation = 06

Total = 100
Assignments:

Discussions: 18 points
Discussion posts will be held via CANVAS. Each student must submit a new discussion thread (about 250 words) and respond to an existing thread (50 words or more). Discussions are assigned between January 15th – April 20th (see dates in schedule). This is an opportunity for you to react to and reflect on specific themes in the readings and a chance to share ideas with your peers and raise questions for them to try to answer on their responses. These ideas and more would be further discussed during class period.
There are 9 scheduled discussions and they count toward your WR so pay attention to content, grammar and structure (300 x 9 = 2700 words).

Presentations: (15 point)

1) Country Presentation (5 points)
   Groups of few students will be assigned a country each to present on January, Tuesday 22nd and Thursday 24th as shown in schedule. Members of the group are expected to give the class a 10-15 minutes PowerPoint presentation to inform us briefly about their country (its history, geography, demography, social issues, current situation, and issues that grabbed your attention personally).

2) Book Review Presentation (5 points)
   Groups of few students will present a summary of their selected book review in 15 minutes scheduled on March 19-21 leaving ample time for discussion and questions.

3) Student’s Final Project Presentation (5 points)
   Each student presents the findings of her/his research/fieldwork related to the final paper topic scheduled on April 23-25.

Papers:

1. Mena Geography Facts in PowerPoint (300 words) (1 point)
2. Book review (14 points) (5 pages long or 1000 words) due on Saturday March 23rd before midnight via Canvas.
3. Final paper
   - Final project topic and proposal due February 28 or earlier (2 points)
   - Final paper (28 points) (10 – 12 pages long or 2000 – 2200 words). Students should use at least 3-5 academic resources, including class readings, and other materials. Students may use any recognizable academic format for citation (e.g. APA). double-spaced, font Times 12, 1" margin all around). Students submit final papers April 28th or earlier via CANVAS Turnitin.

Please visit the UF Reading and Writing Center if you need extra assistance in writing (see “tutoring” section below). You have to score C or higher on these writing assignments in order to fulfill the writing requirement.

Quizzes:

Students take 8 quizzes from Week 3 – Week 14 almost every Thursday as shown in schedule. Each quiz is based on that week’s lecture and resources and knowledge accumulated in previous weeks.

Important: To satisfy the writing requirement for this class, you need to earn C (73-76) or higher.

Note: A grade of C– is not a qualifying grade for major, minor, Gen Ed, or College Basic distribution credit. For further information on UF's Grading Policy, see: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx; http://www.isis.ufl.edu/minusgrades.html

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ISSUES

Canvas: All assignments, announcements, exercises, study guides, grades, etc. will be posted on the course website on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check the website regularly and keep up to date with the class.

Attendance/participation: Attendance is mandatory. Absences will be excused in accordance with UF policy. Acceptable excuses include illness, religious holidays, & military obligation: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx. These need to be documented excuses. Should you miss a class for any reason, you are responsible for informing yourself as to the material covered. Except in the case of certified illness or other UF accepted excuse, there will be no make-up option for missed exams/assignments. Where possible, make-ups should be arranged prior to absence. Alternatively, students should contact me on return to classes. By being in class and participating you are rewarded at the end of the semester.

Refer to the following website: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences

Late and Make-Up Work: No late work will be accepted or make-ups will be offered unless the student offers a legitimate documented excuse.

Cell phones and other electronic devices: Students are expected to put on silent and put away all cell phones during class sessions. No electronic devices are needed in this course. Accordingly, all electronic devices must be put away as well.

Academic Integrity: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. An academic honesty offense is defined as the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. Violations of the honor code include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, bribery, misrepresentation, fabrication, and conspiracy. Such violations may result in the following: lowering of grades, mandatory 0 on assignments, redoing assignments, a final failing grade in the course, expulsion from the course, referral to the student-run Honor Court. The Honor Code states: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment. For more information, refer to: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/Academic_Honesty.html

Students with Special Needs: Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office (Disability Resources in Reid Hall). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. Contact the Disability Resources Center (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) for information about available resources.

Counseling & Mental Health Resources: Students facing difficulties completing the course or who are in need of counseling or urgent help should call the on-campus Counseling and Wellness Center (352-392-1575; http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/).

Online Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu.

Other Issues: Appointments – Letters of Recommendation – E-mail

1) Appointments: No appointment is needed for meetings during office hours. If you make an appointment with me outside my office hours, please make sure you show up on time. If you wish to cancel, do so at least two hours in advance. Students who violate these will not be given a second chance.

2) Letters of recommendation: If you wish me to write you a letter of recommendation, before you approach me with a request, please make sure that:

- You do so at least three weeks before the deadline of the letter.
- You will earn / have earned at least B+ in all classes you had with me.
- You had regular attendance.
- You did all required work, including ungraded work.
- You never behaved in a disrespectful way - tacitly or otherwise - with me or your classmates.

3) E-mail: Please note that e-mail messages WITHOUT the following will be ignored:

- A meaningful subject line
- A proper greeting (at least in the first message in a series of related messages; i.e., messages with the same subject line). Examples of proper greeting include 'Dear/Hello Dr. Arfi.' No 'hey' or simply 'hello'.
- And please make sure you read your message over before you hit 'send'.
