Course description:

This course is a survey of Arabic culture from the sixth century to the present. It mainly focuses on Islamic civilization and culture of the people of the Middle East and North Africa.

Course Objectives:

By the conclusion of this course, it is expected that students will:

- have deeper understanding of the Arabs' culture, with special reference to history, religion, society, politics, and art, as well as to the Arabs' contributions to medicine, mathematics and architecture;
- be familiar with and be able to assess and evaluate misconceptions about Arabs and Arabic culture;
- develop deeper understanding of own culture through comparison with the target culture;
- implement higher order thinking and analytic skills by going beyond comprehension and using application, analysis, synthesis, and evaluation. Refer to Bloom's taxonomy on this website http://ww2.odu.edu/educ/roverbau/Bloom/blooms_taxonomy.htm .

N.B. The course has a writing requirement (WR) – 2000 words.

I will have office hours three days a week. Please do come to see me if you need help.

Course requirements:

1) Two Essays (40%) – 200 points each

You will be assigned two take-home essays: Essay One and Essay Two. These are expected to be turned in as typed 1,000-word essays (double-spaced, font Times 12, 1" margin all around). Each essay will be a response to one or more of the following: lecture notes, video, and assigned readings. Take-home essays are expected to be turned in as hard and electronic copies. Each essay will be graded according to content and organization, as well as language and formatting. A rubric will be provided. You have to score C or higher on these essays in order to fulfill the writing requirement. If you do poorly on one or both essays, you could request a third assignment: Essay Three. The grade you earn on Essay Three may replace the grade on Essay One or Essay Two.

Important: To satisfy the WR requirement for this class, you need to earn C (73-76) or higher.

2) Country Presentation (10%) – 100 points

Groups of 3-4 students will be assigned a country each. Members of the group are expected to give the class a 20-minute presentation to inform us about their country (its history, geography, demography, social issues, current situation, exciting and unexciting things about it).

3) Two Exams (30%) – 150 points each

These are a midterm and a final. Each exam will contain questions that require a short answer, a paragraph (a 100-word answer), and/or an essay (300 words). The total number of words expected in each exam is 700.

4) Ten Assignments (20%) – 20 points each

These are mainly reading and audio-visual assignments accompanied with questions. You are expected to type all answers and turn in assignments electronically on Canvas.

Grading Scale (& GPA equivalent):

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ISSUES

Canvas: All assignments, announcements, exercises, study guides, grades, etc. will be posted on the course website on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check the website regularly and keep up to date with the class.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory and will be assessed by roll call. Students will lose 1% from their final grade for each unexcused absence. Absences will be excused in accordance with UF policy. Acceptable excuses include illness, religious holidays, & military obligation:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>. These need to be documented excuses. Should you miss a class for any reason, you are responsible for informing yourself as to the material covered. Except in the case of certified illness or other UF accepted excuse, there will be no make-up option for missed exams/assignments. Where possible, make-ups should be arranged prior to absence. Alternatively, students should contact me on return to classes. You may miss 2 sessions without any penalty. Every absence thereafter results in minus 2% deducted from your final grade unless the absence is a documented excuse. Arriving late (after 5:00) or leaving early (before class is dismissed) is considered a half absence and results in minus 1% from the final grade. Refer to the following website:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences>

Late and Make-Up Work: No late work will be accepted or make-ups will be offered unless the student offers a legitimate documented excuse. See Attendance above.

Cell phones and other electronic devices: Students are expected to put on silent and put away all cell phones during class sessions. No electronic devices are needed in this course. Accordingly, all electronic devices must be put away as well.

Academic Integrity: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. An academic honesty offense is defined as the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. Violations of the honor code include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, bribery, misrepresentation, fabrication, and conspiracy. Such violations may result in the following: lowering of grades, mandatory 0 on assignments, redoing assignments, a final failing grade in the course, expulsion from the course, referral to the student-run Honor Court. The Honor Code states: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment. For more information, refer to: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/Academic_Honesty.html

Students with Special Needs: Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office (Disability Resources in Reid Hall). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. Contact the Disability Resources Center (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>) for information about available resources.

Counseling & Mental Health Resources: Students facing difficulties completing the course or who are in need of counseling or urgent help should call the on-campus Counseling and Wellness Center (352-392-1575; <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/>).

Online Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>.

1) Appointments: No appointment is needed for meetings during office hours. If you make an appointment with me outside my office hours, please make sure you show up on time. If you wish to cancel, do so at least two hours in advance. Students who violate these will not be given a second chance.
