Textbooks and teaching materials

3. Course codes for Alif Baa and Al-Kitaab part one companion websites from Al-Kitaab bookstore (Note: Each textbook requires a different access code. If you purchased new books, the codes should be included in the wrapper.)

4. Recommended web site: Arabic verb conjugator, https://qutrub.arabeyes.org/

5. Additional materials (handouts, practical activities related to the main subjects) will be added in class when needed.

6. An Arabic song is added at the end of the semester for cultural purposes and to provide a small break from heavy load lessons.

Course Description

The Arabic taught in this course is predominantly Modern Standard Arabic (MSA). However, references are made to the various dialects of Arab countries and select material will be presented in Levantine Arabic dialect for comparison with MSA. The aim of the course is to provide a good understanding of the Arabic used in the spoken and printed mass media in all Arab countries. A solid knowledge of MSA would be very helpful in subsequent studies of specific Arabic dialects for those who desire to acquire them. Throughout the semester, the course will rely on a communicative approach to learning and teaching at all times. It will stress oral skills in the study of the language and use of Arabic in class.

Course Objectives
By the end of this semester, students will be expected to perform at the Novice Mid to Novice High level of proficiency in Arabic based on the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines 2012. This means that students will be expected to do the following:

1. In the “speaking” area of the language:
   a. Manage successfully a number of uncomplicated tasks in straightforward social situations, using rehearsed utterances.
   b. Handle conversation in a few predictable topics necessary for survival in the target language culture such as basic personal information, a limited number of activities, preferences, and immediate needs.
   c. Respond to simple, direct questions or requests for information.
   d. Ask a few basic questions, using memorized utterances and formulae.

2. In the “writing” area of the language:
   a. Meet limited, basic, practical writing needs using lists, short messages, postcards, and simple notes.
   b. Express themselves in the context in which the language was learned by relying mainly on practiced material.
   c. Focus on common elements of daily life.
   d. Recombine learned vocabulary and structures to create simple sentences on very familiar topics.

3. In the “listening” area of the language:
   a. Understand information from sentence-length speech, one utterance at a time, in basic personal and social contexts with contextual or extra-linguistic support (although comprehension may be very uneven)
   b. Understand speech dealing with areas of practical needs such as highly standardized messages, phrases, or instructions, if the vocabulary has been learned.

4. In the “reading” area of the language:
   a. Understand, fully and with relative ease, key words and cognates as well as formulaic phrases across a range of highly contextualized texts.
   b. Understand predicable language and messages such as those found on train schedules, roadmaps and street signs.
   c. Drive meaning from short, non-complex texts that convey basic information with the help of contextual or extra-linguistic support.

Note:
A grade of C− is not a qualifying grade for major, minor, Gen Ed, or College Basic distribution credit. For further information on UF's Grading Policy, see:
https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx;
http://www.isis.ufl.edu/minusgrades.html

Classroom policy
Canvas: All assignments, announcements, exercises, study guides, grades, etc. will be posted on the course website on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check the website regularly and keep up to date with the class.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory and will be assessed by roll call. Absences will be excused in accordance with UF policy. Acceptable excuses include illness, religious holidays, & military obligation: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx. These need to be documented excuses. Should you miss a class for any reason, you are responsible for informing yourself about the material covered. Except in the case of certified illness or other UF-accepted excuse, there will be no make-up option for missed exams/assignments. Where possible, make-ups should be arranged prior to absence. Alternatively, students should contact me on return to classes.

You may miss 3 sessions without any penalty. Every absence thereafter results in minus 1% deducted from your final grade unless the absence is a documented excuse. Arriving late (within 5 minutes of the beginning of class time) or leaving early (within 5 minutes before class is dismissed) is considered a half absence and results in minus .5% from the final grade. Missing more than 5 minutes of class time is considered absence.

Refer to the following website: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences

Late and Make-Up Work: No late work will be accepted and no make-ups will be offered unless the student offers a legitimate documented excuse. See Attendance above.

Cell phones and other electronic devices: Students are expected to put their cellphones on silent during class sessions. No texting or cellphone/smartphone activities are allowed during class time.

Academic Integrity: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sscr/process/student-conduct/honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Students with Special Needs: Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office (Disability Resources in Reid Hall). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. Contact the Disability Resources Center (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc) for information about available resources.

Important
This course is open to students who have never studied Standard Arabic and thus cannot read it or write it. If you have had any formal or informal instruction of Standard Arabic, please contact Youssef Haddad yah@ufl.edu to arrange for a placement test. Students who fail to report any knowledge of Standard Arabic will be removed from the course; this may happen after the Drop-Add period.

Online Course Evaluations:
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

Exams
The exams will take place on the following dates: (Dates are tentative and subject to change based on different considerations. Students, however, will be consulted and advised of the new dates.)

- Exam 1  September 20th, 2019
- Exam 2  October 25th, 2019
- Oral presentations November 27th, 28th, 29th
- Listening exam December 2nd, 2019
- Exam 3  December 3rd, 4th 2018

All assignments are due on the dates indicated in the schedule below.

Grades
The final course grade will be based on the following percentages:

- Exam 1 + Midterm: 30%
- Exam 3: 20%
- Oral presentation: 10%
- Homework: 10%
- Quizzes (x6): 20%
- Class attendance and preparation: 10%

This class is a group effort! We can make much more progress as a class than as individuals by creating an Arabic-speaking community of which you will be a fully participating member. The following suggestions will help you get the most out of the course:

1. Prepare for active participation in class. Practice new vocabulary aloud until you can reproduce it easily, listen/read texts several times until you are ready to answer questions on them, practice new grammar by using it in sentences.

2. Study aloud. The only way to train your brain and your mouth to speak in Arabic is through performance. Reading silently is not enough. Repeat whatever you hear, pronounce whatever you write, and learn to talk to yourself in Arabic.

3. Think in Arabic. While on your way from one class to another, think to yourself in Arabic. Name all of the objects whose name you know in Arabic. Describe their location, size, shape, color, number, adding as much detail as possible.

4. Study in pairs/groups. This is a great way to prepare for class and review—as long as you do the work in Arabic as much as possible, of course! Ask each other questions, brainstorm about assignments, go over materials covered in class together. You are welcome to collaborate on assignments, as long as each student hands in his/her own work.

5. Personalize vocabulary. Make words relevant by thinking of what you can say about yourself with them. Write extra sentences that are meaningful to you so that the vocabulary becomes yours. It is important at this stage to concentrate on what you can say more than what you want to say—which will come in time—and the best way to successfully attain that goal is to build a solid vocabulary base. Language learning is a process of programming yourself, because the words that you memorize are those very words that you will use to express yourself. By spending five minutes with words that you choose from the given vocabulary lists, you will be able to retain them for the rest of your life—Make this language yours.

6. Language is context. The communicative approach to language learning encourages you, the learner, to use what you know to derive what you do not. Think about how you acquired your native language: you learned new words by guessing their meaning from context, and you learned how to produce sentences by imitating and using patterns. As adult learners, we can take some shortcuts, but guessing skills remain central to language acquisition.

7. Good language learners learn from their own mistakes and those of others. As language learners new to Arabic, mistakes are going to be made, but should not cause you undue stress. When your classmates are speaking, be an active listener by listening both to what they are saying and how they are saying it. Think about how you would correct their sentences.
Please note:

- This semester we are introducing select material in Levantine Arabic dialect for the first time. This will require disciplined individual work on the part of the students prior to coming to class.
- Students must turn in the assignments marked in bold below at the beginning of class on the dates indicated.
- Other assignments must be prepared prior to coming to class and will be reviewed with the instructor during class time.
- Material marked in green is added to the course independent of the textbook material. (No need for textbooks that day).
- Students must keep their syllabus, class notes, handouts, returned exams and homework in a binder.
