COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course explores gender relations in the Arab world and the ways Arab women and men negotiate roles and influences. In the process, we will also rethink cultural norms and the factors that produce and shape them. This will help us move away from stereotypes and gain more nuanced understanding of complex cultural realities, including our own.

The course examines gender relations at various historical junctures, but with a special focus on recent history. It consists of an introduction and five sections that follow a combined thematic and chronological organization. The five sections are:

1. Women in Literature
2. Women in Art
3. Women in Social and Economic Lives
4. Women in Religion and Religious Scholarship
5. Women in Politics.

The fifth section will conclude with a discussion of Leila Ahmed's book, A Quiet Revolution: The Veil's Resurgence, from the Middle East to America, focusing on the political dimension of the veil.

We will use textual sources supplemented by audio-visual materials.
Reading and Audio-Visual Assignments:

All readings and most audio-visual material for this course are in English. When audio-visual material is untranslated, the aim is only to observe the performance, not to understand the content.

The typical reading load is one article/chapter per session. Reading assignments for double-block sessions will typically be divided among two or more groups. Students are required to carefully complete all readings and audio-visual assignments before coming to class, be ready to give detailed summaries, point out important themes, and lead in-depth discussions of their assignments.

There will be several pop quizzes to test the depth of your engagement with class discussions and assigned material. Please note that our main class activity consists of discussions of assigned materials. Failure to complete assignments will cause major disruption to the class and affect your final grade.

Writing Assignments:

There will be four 1000-word long writing assignments for students who are taking this course to satisfy the Gen Ed Writing requirement. Prompt questions will be posted on Canvas prior to each essay’s due date. Please consult the grading rubric (below) for more on this point. Students who do not need to satisfy this requirement will be assigned one mid-term and one final exam.

Presentations:

All students are to give 15-minute presentations followed by questions and answers. Most presentations are scheduled at the end of the semester, but some may be scheduled earlier (depending on the number of students who take this class). The aim of these presentations is to allow you to research a course-related theme of your choice and share the results with your classmates. Students must discuss their presentation topics with me no later than the eighth week of the semester.
ATTENDANCE

You are allowed three fifty-minute session absences (equivalent of one week). Beyond this, any unexcused absence will cause your course grade to drop by one scale (example: if your grade for the course is A, with one unexcused absence it becomes A-, if it is A- it becomes B+). If you miss class for a valid reason you have to bring in a supporting document (for example: a doctor’s note). When missing class to observe a religious holiday please notify me beforehand. Please note: once you have used up your three complimentary absences, you will not be allowed additional ones, regardless of what excuses you may give me. Note also that three late arrivals (five or more minutes after class begins) count as one absence.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ISSUES

A C- grade will not be sufficient for Majors or Minors or count towards a GE or Gordon Rule Credit or College Basic Distribution Credit. See UF website on grading policy: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx

CANVAS

All assignments, announcements, exercises, study guides, grades, etc. will be posted on the course website on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check the website regularly and keep up to date with the class.

CELL PHONES AND OTHER ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

Students are expected to turn off - or put on silent - and put away all cell phones during class sessions.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. An academic honesty offense is defined as the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. Violations of the honor code include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, bribery, misrepresentation, fabrication, and conspiracy. Such violations may result in the following: lowering of grades, mandatory 0 on assignments, redoing assignments, a final failing grade in the course, expulsion from the course, referral to the student-run Honor Court. The Honor Code states: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment. For more information, refer to: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/Academic_Honesty.html

STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS
Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. More information can be found at http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/

Letters of Recommendation:

If you wish me to write a letter of recommendation on your behalf, before you approach me with a request, please make sure that:

- You will earn / have earned at least B+ in all classes you had with me.
- You had regular attendance.
- You did all required work, including ungraded work.
- You never behaved in a disrespectful way - tacitly or otherwise - with me or your classmates.
- If you request a letter one year or more after you have taken my classes please send me a picture of you.

Final Points:

- When you email me through Canvas, please make sure to check the box that says “Send a copy of this message to recipients' email address(es).” If you don’t it may take me several days before I realize that you have emailed me.
- Allow 24 hours to receive a reply to your emails.
- I look forward to an exciting and fulfilling semester!
