Course Objectives

CHI 2341 is a continue course of CHI2340. It is a standard Mandarin Chinese course designed for students with significant bilingual background in the language, namely the abilities of listening and speaking daily Chinese. The main emphasis is on both recognition of the characters and writing, but pronunciation and speaking are also stressed. The three course objectives are:

1. Linguistic Objectives

Help students acquire a good knowledge of Chinese Pinyin system; learn approximately 500 characters/phrases and to become familiar with the basic grammar structures in the language.

2. Socio-cultural Objectives

Help students understand Chinese socio-culture as it embedded in language.

3. Functional/Communicative Objectives

a. Listening Skill - Enhance the students' ability to understand the natural Chinese language materials at intermediate level.

b. Speaking Skill - Enable students to accomplish daily communicative tasks with coherence, accuracy, and fluency with ease.

c. Reading Skill - Enable students to read materials expressed by frequently used sentence structures and the most frequently used characters in the Chinese language.

d. Writing Skill - Enable students to write simple passages and letters in traditional characters.

Course Requirements

1. Completed CHI 2340 with a grade of C and above, or S, or equivalent by placement test.

2. Attendance

Since language learning is a cumulative process, it is essential for students to come to class and practice their Chinese. Students are allowed to have three unexcused absences. Each additional unexcused absence after the 4th will result in 1-point deduction from the final score.

Please be punctual. If you are late to class, you will not be given extra time to complete the exams and quizzes. If you are more than 5 minutes late three times without your instructor's consent, they will be counted as one absence. If you are more than 30 minutes late, it will be considered as one absence. If you leave 10 minutes prior to the end of the class is over without your instructor's permission, it is counted as one absence as well.

If you are late or miss class for any reason, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor or ask your classmates to know what you have missed and what you need to do.

You may be excused from the class only if you provide documented evidence, such as a note from the doctor, accident report, receipt for car repair etc. Any personal trip cannot be waived from absence, and the document must be providing to teacher before the trip in order to make-up any test. School activity also needs to be proved by teacher in advance, in order to get make-up any test.

3. Participation & Classroom performance

Students will be judged by their daily performance in class. Students are expected to preview lessons, and prepare for classroom activities, do daily assignment. Some points might be deducted from the participation if you missing any daily assignment as teacher request. Since this is a four-credit course, students are expected to study for at least 2 hours every day. Talking, sleeping, or doing homework during the class is considered as disengaged from class activities. Any absence is considered as no participation on the absent day. A daily participation grading criteria for class participation will be on a 0-10 point scale.

0 = missing daily assignment; poor daily performance; any interrupts to the lecture; bad manner; eat, sleep, talk, playing cellphone in the lecture; cheating on the test or homework.

10 = excellent daily performance; positive attitude; join the class activities, aggressive answer teacher's questions.

Important Classroom Etiquette

During class please do not eat, talk, sleep and also don't playing Cell phones, computers, PDAs, I-pods, etc. If Students use any of the above devices without the prior consent of the instructor she/he will be asked to leave.

4. Homework

All homework is due at the beginning of class on the due date. If homework is turned in at the end of class, it will be checked but not graded. No homework will be accepted after the due dates indicated on your assignment sheet. Any missing homework assignments will be graded as 0. In case you must miss class on the day that an assignment is due, turn it in ahead of time.

Any duplicated homework or writing assignment will also receive a 0. Duplicate means if you exactly copy other student's assignment, homework, or you copied from any Internet documents.

5. Quizzes & Tests
