

Announcement of Conner Scholarships
in French and Francophone Studies for Study Abroad

The Wayne Conner fund for the Advancement of French and Francophone Studies will offer two scholarships of $1000 each to a worthy student. These scholarships are given to undergraduate students majoring (double major and dual degree students are eligible) in French and Francophone Studies and attending a UF sponsored study abroad program led by a faculty member of the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures. A faculty review committee selects awardees based on their academic performance and involvement in the French and Francophone Studies Program. Students will be recognized at the LLC annual award ceremony in April.

Application deadline: February 28, 2019
