Description du cours
Ce cours est une introduction à la littérature africaine d’expression française. A travers l’étude de plusieurs textes, poèmes et épopées (extraits), nous tenterons de tracer son développement ainsi que ses principales orientations. Plusieurs domaines d’étude et plusieurs axes de réflexion seront privilégiés : les mouvements littéraires, la notion de canon, « l’expérience africaine » et ses représentations, l’enfance, l’adaptation littéraire et ses problématiques, le discours identitaire, le nationalisme, le discours transnational.

Objectifs du cours
- Se familiariser avec la production littéraire africaine
- Examinier le rôle central de l’enfance dans la production littéraire africaine
- Les expériences africaines
- Critique des œuvres et des adaptations
- Complexité des réalités africaines contemporaines

Course Requirements
You will be expected to complete assigned reading prior to the class in which the material is discussed. Three assignments are required for this class. They necessitate analysis of one or more texts and films studied in class. In addition to the assignments, presentations on books and films studied are required. With the exception of the final assignment, all writing assignments will be returned to students with comments before the final week of classes. Attendance is mandatory for this class. Class format: lectures and discussions.

Grades

Total points will be calculated, and the final grade will be assigned according to the table:

Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx.

Presence and participation: attendance is mandatory and will be taken at the start of each class – it is therefore important you arrive in class on time. I will take points off for each class absence, unless appropriate written justification is provided, or the absence is due to one of the “acceptable reasons” as per UF policies. Participation in class discussions is crucial, and you are expected to actively contribute to debates if you want to obtain full score in this component. Un-respectful class demeanor (e.g. talking and texting during the class, using lap-tops for anything else than taking class notes, and studying for other classes) is NOT TOLERATED.

Assignment: combination of short essay questions. Topics will be posted on line.

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

Make-up policy: Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx. Excuses for missing a class test or deadline for assignments will only be accepted for proven and acceptable reasons. You should give me prior notice whenever possible.

Academic Honesty: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/secr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

Campus Helping Resources

Students experiencing crisis or personal problems that interfere with their general wellbeing are encouraged to utilize the university’s counseling resources. The Counseling and Wellness Center provides confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students. Contact information: http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx, 392-1575.

Other useful contacts are also the University Police Department: 392-1111.

Students with Disabilities Act

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter, which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
