

JPN 1131 Beginning Japanese 2 Spring 2016

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course is a continuation of JPN 1130 Beginning Japanese 1. We will cover basic structures of Japanese through communicative interaction that will enable you to attain a high-beginning level of language proficiency in Japanese. By the end of the semester, you will have learned approximately 100 additional kanji. You will also become able to express comparison, probability, conjecture, ability, and change of state, as well as convey intentions and desires, state opinions, report quotations, give reasons and more. The course will cover Chapter 4 through Chapter 7 of the textbook Yookoso! An Invitation to Contemporary Japanese. You must attain a letter grade of C (73%) or higher in this course or instructor's permission to continue in JPN 2230 Intermediate Japanese 1.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

In order to take this course, (1) semester of university-level study of Japanese (JPN 1130) or the equivalent, is required. You must have attained a letter grade of C (73%) or higher in JPN 1130, instructor's permission, or the equivalent as proven by placement test score to continue in JPN 1131. If you are a new student to the Japanese language program at the University of Florida, you must take a placement test scheduled on Wednesday, January 6th in order to be allowed to enroll in this class. You must register for this exam with Professor Uotate (yuotate@ufl.edu) by 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, January 5th. Please go to the following website for the registration form: <http://www.languages.ufl.edu/japanese/index.html>. Please see your instructor on the first day of class if you have not already registered for the placement exam.

COURSE MATERIALS

All materials required or recommended for this course are available at Gator Textbooks, 3501 S.W. 2nd Avenue, Suite D (Creekside Mall). Phone: 374-4500. This course is a continuation of JPN 1130 from the fall semester, therefore students who took JPN 1130 should have all the materials except for the new course packet and required kanji dictionary listed on p. 3. Please be sure to ask for the course packet behind the counter at Gator Textbooks – the course packets are not on the shelves with the textbooks.

Required Textbook/Workbook/CDs:

The textbook, workbook, and CD-ROM are required materials to be purchased at Gator Textbooks or elsewhere. The Audio CD Program is also required, but it is available online at no cost. The bookstore offers different combination packages - see below for details to individually determine which combination you prefer.

There are 2 combination packages available. Buying a combination package is less expensive than buying each individual item separately. The first combination contains items #1 - #3 below (ISBN 0-07-345451-6). This package excludes the audio CD program. The Student Audio Program is available free on-line at: <http://www.mhhe.com/yookoso3>. Click on the name of your textbook for entry. No password is required. The second combination contains #1 - #4 below (ISBN 0-07-345371-4). The audio CD program can also be purchased separately if desired.

1. Tohsaku, Y. (2006). Yookoso! An Invitation to Contemporary Japanese. Student Edition with Online Learning Center Bind-in Card, 3rd edition. Boston: McGraw-Hill.
2. Hamasaki, S., Ito, H., Kataoka, H., Morioka, A., & Tohsaku, Y. (1999). Workbook/Laboratory Manual to accompany Yookoso! An Invitation to Contemporary Japanese. Boston: McGraw-Hill.
3. Tohsaku, Y. (2004). Interactive CD-Rom to accompany Yookoso! An Invitation to Contemporary Japanese. Boston: McGraw-Hill.
4. Tohsaku, Y. (1999). Student Audio CD Program to accompany Yookoso! An Invitation to Contemporary Japanese 3rd/2006 edition, Boston: McGraw-Hill.

The following materials are also required for purchase:

1. Course Packet.
2. Bunt, J. (Ed.). (2000). The Oxford Starter Japanese Dictionary. New York: Oxford University Press, ISBN: 0198601972 (OR Equivalent)
3. Halpern, J (Ed.). (2002). The Kodansha Kanji Learner's Dictionary. Tokyo/New York: Kodansha International, ISBN: 4770028555. (OR Equivalent)

REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES

1. Preparation for the class

The daily schedule, which follows below, is designed for you to prepare the materials indicated for a given date BEFORE the class meets. You are expected to come to class well prepared so that you will be ready to participate in communication activities in a meaningful context with your instructor and classmates. Read the assigned pages carefully, listen to the audio files online, and bring any questions you had while studying for the class since they may benefit your classmates as well! This is an intensive language course for which you will receive five credit hours. Therefore, you are expected to study for the course at least two hours every day. These two hours include time for you to 1) read the textbook carefully, 2) do the textbook activities, 3) complete the homework, 4) memorize vocabulary and kanji, 5) memorize the required dialogues on the syllabus, and 6) review materials. Completing homework alone is not sufficient preparation to perform well in class. If you do not know how to prepare for the class, please ask the instructor or refer to the study guide in the course packet.

2. Attendance and participation

Attendance and active participation in class are mandatory and will be recorded at each class session. Foreign language learning is a cumulative process, and it is very important that you come to class and practice Japanese every day. Grading criteria for participation will be on a 10 point scale. To receive full participation credit, you must show evidence of preparation for class. However, this is not to say that you cannot make mistakes; trial and error is the only way to learn how to use the language, and you are encouraged to try out the new structures, make errors, and learn from them. Active participation that shows your effort will count towards the participation grade. On the contrary, no participation will seriously hurt your participation grade. You will receive 0 points when you are absent from a class.

Grading criteria for class participation

- 10 = excellent performance; high level of fluency and accuracy
- 9 = very good/strong performance with some minor weak areas; memorized most materials; no need to refer to textbook
- 8 = good performance with some weakness; memorized some materials; occasional need to refer to textbook.
- 7 = fair performance, but weak in major areas; memorized some materials; occasional need to refer to textbook
- 6 = poor performance, weak in most areas, refers constantly to textbook
- 5 = completely unprepared, or disengaged from class activities
- 0 = Absent

It is crucial that you attend every class for successful Japanese learning. In the event you must miss the class, please contact the instructor prior to the class meeting and have your absence pre-approved, except for documented emergency. You may be excused from the class only if you provide documented evidence (e.g., a letter from the doctor/infirmarary, accident/police report, receipt for car repair).

Please be punctual because you may miss important information and distract your classmates. If you are late to class, you will not be given extra time to complete the exams and quizzes. If you are more than three minutes late three times without your instructor's consent, they will be counted as one absence. If you are more than 30 minutes late, it will also be considered as one absence. If your unexcused absences exceed 3 or more, you will lose 3% from the final grade. Your course grade will be lowered by 1% for each class that you miss after the 4th absence. In the event your unexcused absences exceed 10 times, you will automatically fail the course.

If you are late or miss class for any reason, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor or ask your classmates to know what you have missed and what you need to do for the following day.

3. Japanese speaking policy in class

You have a very limited exposure to Japanese outside of the class, and it is very important that you make every use of the precious opportunities to speak Japanese in class. Therefore, you are required to speak only Japanese in class. You will sign an honor pledge at the beginning of the term regarding speaking only Japanese in class. You have been explicitly taught how to ask permission to speak English (英語で話してもよろしいでしょうか), if it becomes absolutely necessary. Please understand that if the instructor denies permission, it is for a specific reason that will be explained to you after class. A limited amount of English will be used by the instructor to explain grammar in class, at the discretion of the instructor.

4. Homework Policies

General Policies:

If any of your homework is incomplete or missing, your homework grade will be lowered by 1% each time after the 2nd incomplete homework. No partially completed homework or homework which was not carefully self-corrected is accepted for credit. Since homework is worth 10% of your final grade, you will receive a zero for the 10% homework grade after 12 times of incomplete or missing homework.

Grading criteria for homework:

OK =	All assigned sections of the homework must be completed using the new patterns without any blanks or incomplete sentences, and carefully self-corrected using the Answer Key
-1% =	You will lose 1% if your homework is not complete or for any of the following reasons: a. No homework or late homework (When you miss class without an official excuse and don't turn in homework for that day in advance, you will lose 1% of the homework grade.) b. Missing or incomplete sections c. No corrections or missing self-correction (even if partial)

All homework assigned in this course is to be completed by the beginning of class on the due date it is scheduled on the syllabus. Put your non-workbook homework on the instructor's desk before class begins. The instructor will not accept any homework that is not stapled or any late homework without an official written excuse. Please do not hesitate to ask questions about the homework assigned during class. All homework must be stapled with your full name in katakana and assigned date at the top of the first page. In order to receive full credit, all the assigned sections of the homework must be completed using the new patterns -no blanks or incomplete sentences.

NO late assignments will be accepted without written evidence of illness or emergency, except in the case that you notify your instructor in advance that you must be absent from class the day an assignment is due. It is required that you turn the homework in ahead of time to receive full credit.

Policies regarding Workbook Homework and Non-Workbook Homework in this Course:

There are 2 types of homework in this course – Workbook homework and Non-Workbook homework. If Workbook and Non-Workbook homework are assigned on the same day, Workbook and Non-Workbook homework must be stapled separately each time.

A. Workbook Homework – Only to be turned in if instructor announces collection at the beginning of class.

Workbook Homework: It is required that you turn in assigned homework on the pages from the workbook. If you do not wish to tear out pages from the workbook, you are required to Xerox the workbook pages to turn in. No homework is to be turned in on notebook paper. Often times, the front page of a worksheet is assigned for one day, and the back of the same worksheet is assigned for the following day. In such a case, make a photocopy of the page so that you can work on the questions on the worksheet after you turn it in on the first day. This is your responsibility – there will be no advance announcements in class. It is recommended that you check weekly for this potential situation and make preparations in advance.

1. Workbook homework is always to be self-corrected using the Answer Key. You are required to complete Workbook homework assigned on your own, then do self-correction using the Answer Key.
2. You must do self-correction in a different color ink (not red) so it will be easy for the instructor to see.
3. Doing workbook homework and making self-correction is considered to be self-study and is the responsibility of all students in the class.
4. The Workbook homework self-corrected may be collected several times a week at the discretion of the instructor, and collection will not be announced in advance.

B. Non-Workbook Homework – All Non-Workbook homework assignments are required to be turned in on the day assigned on the syllabus.

Non-Workbook Homework consists of all the homework (a – d) listed below:

- a. Hiragana, Katakana and Kanji worksheets in the course packet
- b. Reading assignments
- c. Sakubun (including posted sakubun and messages on Canvas)
- d. OLC, Media CD, Web Assignments (Do not email any of these assignments to your instructor)
 - E-Learning in Canvas assignments: You must bring 1) a printout of your revised sakubun and 2) a printout of the messages exchanged posted to the Discussion Board to class on the date assigned (refer to syllabus policy #10 for detailed instruction on E-learning assignments)

- Online Learning Center/Media CD assignments: You must submit a printout of the progress reports with your score (print out a web page that appears when 'print report' is selected). Cut and paste only the score report with percentages. You may try the exercises as many times as you wish. The highest score obtained will be considered for the grade.
- Web assignments: Submit a printout of the screen when you complete an on-line activity (only the score report). The highest score obtained will be considered.

5. Quiz Self-Correction Policy

Upon return of a quiz in class, you are required to do self-correction and turn it in the following day. It is not the instructor's responsibility to remind you of this policy. No late assignments will be accepted. You must attempt to correct ALL errors on quizzes or 2 pts will be deducted from the quiz score. You must do self-correction in a different color ink (not red) so it will be easy for the instructor to see. Please write SC (self corrected) at the top of the first page. Do not staple the self-corrected quiz to the regular homework or self-correction homework. When you have missed any kanji/furigana (kanji reading in hiragana) on kanji quizzes, in order to reinforce kanji learning, you are required to complete extra writing practice – you must write each kanji or compound 5 times. When you turn in this kanji extra homework, be sure to staple the additional writing practice sheet together with your graded kanji quiz.

6. Memorization of Assigned Vocabulary and Dialogues

Memorizing vocabulary is very important to develop proficiency in a foreign language. Dialogue memorization will help you establish a basic framework for conversation including the target grammar which can then be applied in different contexts. Your instructor will evaluate your dialogue memorization based on accuracy and fluency. It is imperative that you prepare the dialogue memorization listening to the textbook audio program in order to develop good pronunciation and intonation. If you miss dialogue memorization assignments, it will significantly affect your participation grade.

7. Policy Regarding Make-Up Quizzes or Exams:

Make-up quizzes or exams may be scheduled ONLY when pre-approved by the instructor or in the case of documented illness or emergency. It is your responsibility to contact your instructor immediately after returning to class and schedule make-up quizzes/exams within 2 class days, or no make-up will be allowed.

8. Learning kanji

Knowledge of kanji is essential for you to become a competent reader of authentic reading materials in Japanese. The learning of kanji is a cumulative process, and it is your responsibility to retain your kanji knowledge over time. To help retention of kanji knowledge, you are expected to use all kanji that has been covered in class in every assignment, quiz, or exam. On exams, you must use kanji you have previously learned to receive full credit. To help reinforce kanji learning, you will be required to complete extra kanji writing practice when you missed kanji/furigana (kanji reading in hiragana) on kanji quizzes and grammar quizzes. The missed kanji practice will be due on the FOLLOWING CLASS DAY after you receive the graded quizzes. When you turn in this homework, be sure to staple the sheet together with your graded kanji quiz or grammar quiz. It is not the instructor's responsibility to remind you of this policy. Turn it in along with your regular homework. You must turn in the extra homework or 2 points will be deducted from the quizzes. No late assignments accepted.

KANJI ACTIVITIES: You will be assigned groups for kanji activities to be presented in class. You are to brainstorm and come up with a 15-20 minute kanji activity exercise to conduct in class using a PowerPoint. You are to create exercises that require students to read as well as write kanji, in addition to understanding the meaning. Please create an activity that everyone in the class is engaged in. For example, if you have a team activity and a few students are at the blackboard writing kanji, all students seated should also be engaged in the activity of writing the kanji. The emphasis is on making learning kanji fun. There are various games you can create based on such formats as Jeopardy, bingo, concentration, etc. You will be given a group grade for your activity (15 points worth of the homework grade), and the audience members will also be evaluated on their preparation for this activity. The audience is expected to come to class to be able to read and write all kanji in the activity. This will be part of the participation grade for the audience.

TO SUPPLEMENT KANJI LEARNING: It is highly recommended that you supplement your kanji learning by using the following websites:(1) www.speedanki.com, (2) www.renshuu.org and (3) <http://kakiyun.main.jp/>. (1) and (2) require registration, but registration is free. (1) Speedanki has all the kanji you need for each of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test levels. The site has kanji divided by level, and you can label each kanji as Unread, Read, Familiar, Mastered, or Review. The goal of course is to transfer every single kanji into the "Mastered" section of each level. (2) Renshuu has all the kanji and vocabulary for each level. Each level has individual lessons, and a quiz you can take. You can even create schedules for yourself. On (3) kakijun website, if you click かんじ けんさく 漢字の検索 and enter kanji, it will show the stroke order of the kanji you entered with animation.

9. E-Learning Assignments

Please refer to the syllabus for due dates of E-Learning assignments. You must post your sakubun (composition) to the discussion board as well as complete responding to your partner in several communications (the approximate length of each assignment will be specified on the syllabus) BEFORE the class starts. Please respond to a different partner for each sakubun assignment. You may choose your partners based upon this requirement and respond as soon as he/she has posted their sakubun. You are required to respond to your partner's posting within 48 hours. If you do not respond within 48 hours, your assignment will be considered incomplete. This is an opportunity for you to enhance your reading skills, learn from each other's writings, and communicate in Japanese with each outside of class. When you post your sakubun, you must attempt to correct errors on your first draft that were pointed out by your instructor. Please do not make comments on grammar errors you may note on the sakubun of other students. Make comments or ask questions about the contents only--This constitutes a homework assignment. Also note that when you and your partner have completed the discussion, you must each bring to class: 1) a print-out of your revised sakubun (revisions are to be highlighted in a different color ink) and 2) a print-out of the messages exchanged posted to the Discussion Board on the assigned date in the syllabus.

10. Cell phones and personal computers policy

You must turn off your cell phones prior to the beginning of class. Personal computers are not to be used during class unless specific permission has been granted in advance by the instructor.

11. Accommodations for students with disabilities

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Disability Resources office. The Dean's office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor in advance of the beginning of class. It is the student's responsibility to discuss specific accommodation arrangements with the instructor.

If you elect the S/U option, you must make a composite score of 73% to receive an S in this class. If you are a current major or minor in Japanese, or you think you might want to major or minor in Japanese in the future, you cannot use the S/U option. It is the student's responsibility to check the deadline to sign up for the S/U grade option and ask your instructor to sign it well in advance of the deadline.

Cumulative Final Exam: All material studied this term

You may take the final exam only on the day your section is scheduled, unless you have written evidence of illness or emergency. Without such written proof and/or pre-approval by the instructor, you will receive no credit. The I (incomplete) grade will not be granted automatically. In addition, you must attain a grade of D- or higher to request the I grade. This is a strict policy of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

PLEASE NOTE: We have petitioned for an assembly final exam for all 3 sections of JPN 1131, but we will not receive notification of the date, time, or location until March. Please disregard the information concerning the final exam on the current Registrar's schedule. Do not plan to leave town until after 5:00 p.m. on April 29th (Friday), the last day of the final exam period. It is a requirement of the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences that you take the exam according to the university schedule.

We will make an announcement in class as soon as possible about the date and time of the exam.
