Who needs to take the placement test?

- You are exempt from the test IF you:
  - Have satisfied the UF prerequisite for a respective course (e.g., have completed CHI 1131 with a grade of C or higher and wish to take CHI 2230).
- You are required to take the placement test IF you:
  - Have previously studied the Chinese language at the high school or college level
  - Have experience living in China, Taiwan, Hong Kong or speaking Chinese at home or elsewhere.

What does the placement test look like? How can I prepare?

The placement test covers listening, writing, and speaking skills and includes 3 separate sections: an online multiple-choice quiz, a short writing sample, and a short oral interview. The placement test will take approximately 1 hour to complete.

What do I need to bring to the placement test?

Please bring your UF student ID as well as pencils and eraser. Paper will be provided.

What if I need accommodations?

Please contact Xu laoshi (hanxu@ufl.edu) to arrange for accommodations at least 3 business days prior to the exam.

How is placement determined? When will I receive my placement test results?

Your placement will be determined by test scores and your experience with the language. You will receive a recommendation for placement via UF e-mail within 24 hours.

What if I have class during the placement test?

Email Xu laoshi (hanxu@ufl.edu) for an excuse note to provide to your instructor.

What if I am currently waiting for an available seat in a language course?

Even if you are not currently registered for a course, please take the test if you do not meet the exemption criteria mentioned above. Also, please attend all the class meetings in the first week in order not to fall behind.

Is there a fee for the placement test?

No, there is no fee.
