

CHI 2230

Intermediate Chinese I

Fall 2019

Goals and Objectives:

Students will gain listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in standard (Mandarin) Chinese, attaining approximately the Intermediate-mid level on the ACTFL/ETS proficiency scale. Specifically, students will be able to achieve the following:

Listening: Able to understand sentence-length utterances especially where context supports understanding and speech is clear--such as in survival situations involving native speakers accustomed to dealing with foreigners. Comprehension areas include such basic needs as getting meals, lodging, and transportation, health care and recreational activities and making friends.

Speaking: Able to make short statements and ask simple questions, with emerging ability in advanced tasks such as narration, description, and comparison. Language is generated through application of internalized grammar rather than relying solely on memorized material. Vocabulary centers around survival topics: common objects, places, activities, basic likes and dislikes, food, clothing, shelter, etc.

Reading: Can identify a moderate number of character components and high-frequency characters in areas of immediate need. Where specific characters and combinations have been memorized, can read for instructional and directional purposes, standardized messages, such as prices in stores, time/date on schedules, simple correspondence, and simple instructions. In terms of literacy, can read textbook materials as covered.

Writing: Able to meet limited practical writing needs. Can write simple, short narratives, descriptions and notes on daily topics. Can supply information on simple forms and documents. In addition, students will gain cultural knowledge and learn to negotiate the various cultural scenarios presented in class.

Required Textbooks:

Integrated Chinese, 4th edition, 2017, Yuehua Liu and Tao-chung Yao et al. Boston: Cheng & Tsui.

Vol. 2 Textbook (ISBN: 9781622911417)

Vol. 2 Workbook (ISBN:9781622911431)

Vol. 3 Textbook (ISBN: 9781622911561)

Vol. 3 Workbook (ISBN: 9781622911578)

The books are available at UF Campus Bookstore and online bookstores. Book 2 (lesson 17 ~ 20) and Book 3 (lesson 1~4) will be covered this semester.

Students will be asked to choose between simplified and traditional character texts, but we will be working with both types of characters in class. The general principle for simplified and traditional characters is: be able to read both types and write one.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Prerequisite

Completed CHI 1131 with a grade of C and better, or S, or equivalent by placement test.

Chinese placement test

If you have not taken Beginning Chinese at the University of Florida or the UF in Chengdu Study Abroad Programs, you must consult your instructor and take the placement test.

Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced Chinese language courses require a placement test administered by the department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures. Testing dates will be: Wednesday, August 21st, 2019 OR Thursday, August 22nd, 2019 from 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm in UF Language Learning Center – 1317 Turlington Hall. If you do not abide by this policy and it is discovered by your instructor that you have previous background in Chinese, your instructor has the right to either place you into the appropriate level if one exists or drop you from the class rolls. For Placement test registration please go to: <https://languages.ufl.edu/academics/lhc-languages/chinese-studies/> and fill out the registration form.

2. Attendance

Since this is an intensive course, attendance is essential part of the class. All students are expected to attend class every day. You are allowed to have four unexcused absences. Each additional unexcused absence after the 4th will result in 1-point deduction from the final scores. Medical related absences including disability related absences may not exceed 10 class times due to interfering with the essential course requirements. Each additional medical related absence after the 10th will result in 1-point deduction from the final score.

For an excused absence: You need to contact the office of the Dean of Student Office at dsocares@dso.ufl.edu or call 352-294-2273 to request assistance. The Dean of Student Office will alert your instructor and certify the related documentation.

Students who work with the Dean of Student Office or are registered with Disability Resource Center are responsible for providing related documentation.

Please be punctual. If you are late to class, you will not be given extra time to complete exams and quizzes. If you are more than 5 minutes late three times without your instructor's consent, they will be counted as one absence. If you are more than 30 minutes late, it will be considered as one absence. If you leave 10 minutes prior to the end of class without your instructor's permission, it will be counted as one absence as well.

If you are late or miss class for any reason, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor or ask your classmates to find out what you have missed and what you need to do.

Religious holidays. Students shall be excused from class to observe a religious holy day of their faith upon prior notification to their instructors. Students shall be permitted to make up the material or activities covered in their absence and shall not be penalized. Please refer to attendance policies at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/#religiousholidaystext>

3. Blended component

This class has a blended component throughout the semester. In lieu of meeting in class, students will be given tasks and assignments to be done online every Friday. Format will be announced.

4. Participation

10% Daily attendance and participation-Up to 10 points per day, on non-test days, assigned according to participation, completion of preparatory work and performance. We expect you to preview lessons and prepare for classroom activities. Since this is a five-credit course, students are expected to study for at least 2 hours every day outside of class. Sleeping, talking or doing homework during class is considered as disengaged from class activities. Any absence is considered as 'no participation' on the day of absence.

Important Classroom Etiquette: During class please do not eat or chew gum. Please also put away all electronic devices— Laptops, computers, tablets, etc.

5. Homework

All homework assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. No homework will be accepted after the due date indicated on your assignment sheet, unless it is an excused absence. Any missing homework assignments will receive a 0. Any copied homework (see item 8 below) will also receive a 0. If you know that you will miss class on the day that an assignment is due and it is excused, turn it in ahead of time.

6. Vocabulary quizzes, mini orals, speaking test, final skit & chapter tests.

There are two Vocabulary quizzes for each lesson. Students will memorize the pinyin, Chinese character and English definition for the new words from the lesson.

A written Chapter test is given every two lessons (LL17-18, LL19-20, L1-2 and L3-4). The test formats are: listening, grammar, reading and writing.

We will have 3 Mini orals throughout the semester. The mini oral is an assignment to practice speaking. Instructions for mini orals will be given beforehand. Students sometimes need to work in pairs or groups.

The Speaking test is an interview with the course instructor. Each student will sign up for an 8-10 minute session. Most questions are given ahead of time so that students can prepare.

The end-of-semester Final skit is the final speaking product of the semester. Students will work in groups and perform a skit in class. Instructions will be given one month prior to the performance.

The Last test is cumulative in nature but will focus on Lessons 3 and Lesson 4. This test will be given during the last two days of class.

7. Canvas/E-Learning (elearning.ufl.edu)

Canvas is an online Course Management System (CMS) to support study in and outside of class. Students are required to check the Canvas/E-learning for the weekly course schedule, class and homework assignments, Grammar PowerPoint notes and other supplementary materials.

8. E-portfolio

Students will collect the written/audio/video evidence of progress and build their own Eportfolio at www.portfolium.com. Your E-portfolio will include but not does not limit to mini Oral drafts, writing drafts, selected mini orals and other works that are assigned to post on E-portfolio. Students may connect their E-portfolio site to personal social media account or professional account.

9. Makeup Policy

- a. Make-up tests, quizzes, homework, and oral presentations (individual and group) are given strictly to those with valid proof of illness, emergency and approved school activities. Official documentation must be provided for the exact date of absence. Pre-arranged make-ups are only for official activities, not for personal activities.
- b. In addition to an official document, the instructor must be contacted by email before the class time and a make-up section must be scheduled within three class days after the student's return to class. It is important not to miss the group presentations as other members in the group can be affected. Also see Attendance.

There will be no make-ups for any quiz, test, or oral presentation if any of the above requirements is not fulfilled.

10. Academic Honesty

Any forms of cheating will not be tolerated. Any students found in violation of the student honor code will be reported to Dean of Students Office. Please refer to the University of Florida Student Honor Code.

NOTE: IF your homework or any other assignments are identical to your classmates' you will receive a ZERO (0) as your grade.

11. Chinese Speaking Policy in Class

Please speak Chinese as much as you can in class. We will show you how to ask permission to speak English, if it becomes necessary.

12. Special Request. “Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.” <https://disability.ufl.edu/>

Homework is due at the beginning of class. Please complete your homework before Chinese class on the due date. You can start working your homework ahead of the due date and feel free to ask any questions.

Homework is an effective way to test your knowledge, but sometimes it can be challenging. If you have questions, ask your instructor or simply write a note in your homework so that your instructor can read your question(s) and answer them.

Make sure you do your homework and understand your errors. When learning a new language, making errors are an invaluable way to improve yourself. So, don't be discouraged. 😊

Many of the homework questions will be asked in your tests.
