Description:

The course is designed on the basis of linguistic skills acquired in the previous five semesters of Chinese study to further train students in advanced use of the language, including conversation, speaking, reading, writing and translation. The topics of the lessons cover the social changes in contemporary China and cultural developments in its social context. Grades are based on both the level of achievement and the progress made during the course.

Course Requirements:

Attendance in class will affect your grade, but more importantly failure to attend class will seriously impair your ability to learn Chinese. Every five unexcused absences will result in a five percent reduction of the final course grade.

Participation in class discussion is important and will affect your overall grade. The vocabulary, grammar as well as the content in the assigned text will be discussed during the lecture. You will be expected to read through the text and the grammar notes before coming to class. You will be asked questions related to what you are supposed to prepare. In order to be well prepared for the next class meeting and fully participate in discussion, you should do the following before the class:

- Read the assigned text, including understanding grammar notes and examples, and learning new vocabulary;
- Read the text aloud;
- Practice writing new characters and phrases;
- Generate at least one question about the text for discussion in class.

Homework assignments (including written exercises and compositions) should be handed in at the beginning of class. Late homework assignments will be corrected but no points will be given.

There will be extensive reading, writing and other assignments. Prepare the assigned lessons and materials before each class. If there are audiocassettes for the assigned materials, you should go to the LRC to listen to them before class.

There will be shishi baogao 時事報告 in class. Students are required to read one essay of news in Chinese newspapers or websites and then report them in class.

Dictation: There will be a dictation in the first 5 minutes of every new topic. No make-up dictation will be given.

Quizzes and Exams: No make-up quizzes or exams will be given. However, if you must miss a test due to illness or personal emergency, you are responsible for documentation.

Term Paper (zhuantì baogào 專題報告) and Oral Presentation:

There will be a writing project or paper (zhuantì baogào 專題報告) with at least 1,200 characters, and an oral presentation based on the paper. Students may consult the paper in their oral presentations, but should not read the paper. You should relate your topic to materials we have read this semester. The more you use the words and sentence patterns learned from this class, the higher the number of points you will get. The topic of your choice for your term paper is due March 20 when you orally present your topic in class; the first draft is due April 3, and the final version April 17-24.

Required Textbook:

- Chih-p'ing Chou et al. All Things Considered: Advanced Reader of Modern Chinese 事事關心：現代漢語高級讀本. Princeton: Princeton University Press, 2000.

On paper dictionary. I recommend The Contemporary Chinese Dictionary: Chinese-English Edition. Beijing: Foreign Language Teaching and Research Press, 2002. Or Far East Chinese-English Dictionary 遠東漢英大辭典. Taipei: The Far East Book Co., 2000.

“Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.”

Academic Honesty Guidelines: “The academic community of students and faculty at the University of Florida strives to develop, sustain and protect an environment of honesty, trust and respect. Students are expected to pursue knowledge with integrity. Exhibiting honesty in academic pursuits and reporting violations of the Academic Honesty Guidelines will encourage others to act with integrity. Violations of the Academic Honesty Guidelines shall result in judicial action and a student being subject to the sanctions in paragraph XIV of the Student Code of Conduct. The conduct set forth hereinafter constitutes a violation of the Academic Honesty Guidelines (University of Florida Rule 6C1-4.017).”

Make-up Policy:

In general, there are NO MAKE-UP EXAMS! This policy is strictly enforced; therefore, please do not schedule dental appointments or car maintenance, nor purchase air tickets for the days of exams! Medical emergencies will be handled on a case by case basis, but require appropriate documentation for consideration.

No changes to the FINAL EXAM day schedule will be made except for University sanctioned make-up exams (see University schedule for specific policies). For students for whom the Registrar's office authorizes a make-up exam, the make-up will be given on the last day of classes.

Evaluation and Grading:

Evaluation provides each student multiple opportunities to demonstrate incremental skill development and accomplishment of goals over discreet segments of material. It provides feedback for both teaching and learning. The examinations will be cumulative, including all previous material plus the most recent week's new material. Your grade will be based strictly on your scores in the aforementioned categories. To get a good final grade, you should work hard in each section. The final letter grade represents the evaluation of the following criteria:

1. Class preparation, participation and performance*:	10%
2. Dictation:	5%
3. Homework:	20%
4. Quizzes:	20%
5. Term paper and oral presentation:	10%
6. Mid-term:	15%
7. Final exam:	20%

(* The performance consists of all the regular class performance, and oral news reports.)

Grading Scale

A=93-100%; A-=90-92%; B+=87-89%; B=83-86%; B-=80-82%; C+=77-79%; C=73-76%; C-=70-72%; D+=67-69%; D=63-66%; D-=60-62%; E=below 60%. S is equivalent to C or better.

Passing Grades and Grade Points

According to university guidelines, letter grades will convert to GPA as follows: A = 4.0; A- = 3.67; B+ = 3.33; B = 3; B- = 2.67; C+ = 2.33; C = 2.0; C- = 1.67; D+ = 1.33; D = 1.0; D- = .67; E = 0; WF = 0; I = 0; NG = 0; S-U = 0

"Students must earn a grade of C or higher to enroll in the second-semester continuation of this language course or to advance to the next year's level; C- is not adequate to continue. The S-U option is not counted toward their major or minor degree, nor General Education requirements."

Policy for Requesting a Letter of Recommendation

1. I only write letters of recommendation for top students (B+ and above) in my classes; and
2. I only write letters of recommendation for either the Chinese majors who have taken at least one course with me, or non-majors who have taken two courses with me.
