Course Description

The Arabic taught in this course is predominantly Modern Standard Arabic (MSA). However, references are made to the various dialects of Arab countries and select material will be presented in Levantine Arabic dialect for comparison with MSA. The aim of the course is to provide a good understanding of the Arabic used in the spoken and printed mass media in all Arab countries. A solid knowledge of MSA would be very helpful in subsequent studies of specific Arabic dialects for those who desire to acquire them. Throughout the semester, the course will rely on a communicative approach to learning and teaching at all times. It will stress oral skills in the study of the language and use of Arabic in class.

Course Objectives

By the end of this semester, students will be expected to perform at the Novice Mid to Novice High level of proficiency in Arabic based on the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines 2012. This means that students will be expected to do the following:

1. In the “speaking” area of the language:
 - a. Manage successfully a number of uncomplicated tasks in straightforward social situations, using rehearsed utterances.
 - b. Handle conversation in a few predictable topics necessary for survival in the target language culture such as basic personal information, a limited number of activities, preferences, and immediate needs.
 - c. Respond to simple, direct questions or requests for information.
 - d. Ask a few basic questions, using memorized utterances and formulae.
2. In the “writing” area of the language:
 - a. Meet limited, basic, practical writing needs using lists, short messages, postcards, and simple notes.
 - b. Express themselves in the context in which the language was learned by relying mainly on practiced material.
 - c. Focus on common elements of daily life.
 - d. Recombine learned vocabulary and structures to create simple sentences on very familiar topics.

3. In the “listening” area of the language:
 - a. Understand information from sentence-length speech, one utterance at a time, in basic personal and social contexts with contextual or extra-linguistic support (although comprehension may be very uneven)
 - b. Understand speech dealing with areas of practical needs such as highly standardized messages, phrases, or instructions, if the vocabulary has been learned.
4. In the “reading” area of the language:
 - a. Understand, fully and with relative ease, key words and cognates as well as formulaic phrases across a range of highly contextualized texts.
 - b. Understand predictable language and messages such as those found on train schedules, roadmaps and street signs.
 - c. Drive meaning from short, non-complex texts that convey basic information with the help of contextual or extra-linguistic support.

If you have had any formal or informal instruction of Standard Arabic, please contact Youssef Haddad yah@ufl.edu to arrange for a placement test. Students who fail to report any knowledge of Standard Arabic will be removed from the course; this may happen after the Drop-Add period.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ISSUES

Canvas:

All assignments, lecture notes, handouts, study guides, grades, etc. will be posted on the course website on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check the website regularly and keep up to date with the class.

Attendance:

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>

Attendance is mandatory and will be assessed by roll call. You may miss three sessions without any penalty. Students will lose 1% from their final grade for each unexcused absence. Absences will be excused in accordance with UF policy. Acceptable excuses include illness, religious holidays, & military obligation. These need to be documented excuses. Should you miss a class for any reason, you are responsible for informing yourself as to the material covered. Except in the case of certified illness or other UF accepted excuse, there will be no make-up option for missed exams/assignments. Where possible, make-ups should be arranged prior to absence. Alternatively, students should contact me on return to classes. Arriving late or leaving early (before class is dismissed) is considered a half absence and results in minus 0.5% from the final grade.

After 15 unexcused absences, a student is not allowed to attend class anymore and s/he will receive a failing grade.

Late and Make-Up Work:

No late work will be accepted or make-ups will be offered unless the student offers a legitimate documented excuse. See Attendance above.

Class Demeanor:

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.

Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

Grades:

The final course grade will be based on the following percentages:

Exams (1-2-3) 45%

Homework: 15%

Quizzes (x8): 10%

Oral presentation: 10%

Group Project: 10%

Preparation and Participation: 10%

20% Daily assignments, preparation, participation, and homework:

Attendance, preparation, participation, and prompt communication with your professor are crucial to your success in this course. An online course requires rigorous planning, organization, and steady, everyday participation in the assigned activities, so that you can learn constantly and avoid “cramming” for assignments. “Cramming” does not lead to good lasting results in any subject matter and even less so in a foreign language. Learning Arabic Language needs to be practiced every day for you to achieve your goals.

You will have in our course:

- 1. Assignments to complete almost every day in preparation for this course on Canvas and in class.*
- 2. Weekly homework to be submitted on Canvas*
- 3. Homework to be submitted on Lingco (Companion Website).*

Please note that some homework will be graded and given feedback. You are expected to spend at least 2 hours per credit hour on homework and assigned activities. In the event that no homework is assigned, you should spend that time reviewing the material. Late homework will receive zero points and will not be accepted. Please remember using English in class will negatively affect your oral performance grade.

10% Quizzes:

You will be given five quizzes during our course. You will have only one attempt and limited time to complete your quiz. Quizzes are designed to help you practice what you have learned and help me as an instructor to see where you need help.

10% Oral Presentations:

You will be working individually to give an oral PowerPoint presentation on yourself and your family member. This presentation should be well planned and contains all what we have studied in the course.

10% Group Project:

You will work in a small group (three people) to produce a film to be screened during the final week of the course. You will create a video speaking about a topic that interests you and related to what we have covered in the course. More information and rubric will be shared with you in week 8.

45% Exams:

You will have three comprehensive written exams this semester that will test your ability to put everything you've learned together to communicate in real situations. More information will be shared with you prior to every exam. The exams will take place the classroom on the following dates: (Dates are tentative and subject to change based on different considerations. Students, however, will be consulted and advised of the new dates.)

Exam 1 September 24th, 2021

Exam 2 November 1st, 2021

Oral presentations: December 02nd, 03^d, 2021

Exam 3 December 7th, 8th 2021

How to Succeed in This Class

This class is a group effort! We can make much more progress as a class than as individuals by creating an Arabic-speaking community of which you will be a fully participating member. The following suggestions will help you get the most out of the course:

1. Prepare for active participation in class. Practice new vocabulary aloud until you can reproduce it easily, listen/read texts several times until you are ready to answer questions on them, practice new grammar by using it in sentences.
2. Study aloud. The only way to train your brain and your mouth to speak in Arabic is through performance. Reading silently is not enough. Repeat whatever you hear, pronounce whatever you write, and learn to talk to yourself in Arabic.
3. Think in Arabic. While on your way from one class to another, think to yourself in Arabic. Name all of the objects whose name you know in Arabic. Describe their location, size, shape, color, number, adding as much detail as possible.
4. Study in pairs/groups. This is a great way to prepare for class and review—as long as you do the work in Arabic as much as possible, of course! Ask each other questions, brainstorm about assignments, go over materials covered in class together. You are welcome to collaborate on assignments, as long as each student hands in his/her own work.
5. Personalize vocabulary. Make words relevant by thinking of what you can say about yourself with them. Write extra sentences that are meaningful to you so that the vocabulary becomes yours. It is important at this stage to concentrate on what you can say more than what you want to say—which will come in time—and the best way to successfully attain that goal is to build a solid vocabulary base. Language learning is a process of programming yourself, because the words that you memorize are those very words that you will use to express yourself. By spending five minutes with words that you choose from the given vocabulary lists, you will be able to retain them for the rest of your life—Make this language yours.
6. Language is context. The communicative approach to language learning encourages you, the learner, to use what you know to derive what you do not. Think about how you acquired your native language: you learned new words by guessing their meaning from context, and you learned how to produce sentences by imitating and using patterns. As adult learners, we can take some shortcuts, but guessing skills remain central to language acquisition.
7. Good language learners learn from their own mistakes and those of others. As language learners new to Arabic, mistakes are going to be made, but should not cause you undue stress. When your classmates are speaking, be an active listener by listening both to what they are saying and how they are saying it. Think about how you would correct their sentences.
