JPN 3411 Advanced Japanese 2 Spring 2017

COURSE OBJECTIVES

JPN 3411 is designed for students who have successfully completed JPN 3410. This course will focus on the development of the four basic skills (speaking, listening, writing and reading) with an emphasis on communicative language use that also reveals features of Japanese culture. You are required to memorize expressions and dialogues in the course materials and participate in classroom activities. We will continue to build vocabulary, grammar, and idioms that will help you become articulate speakers of Japanese. One of the study habits that you are expected to develop in this course is frequent use of the character/expression dictionary outside of class. This course is designed to bridge the intermediate level course to advanced reading course, and one of the main objectives is to prepare students to become self-sufficient readers of Japanese.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

In order to take this course, five semesters of university-level study of Japanese including JPN 3410 at UF, or the equivalent, are required. To continue in JPN 3411, you must have attained a grade of C (73%) or higher in JPN 3410 or the equivalent as proven by a placement test score, or must obtain the instructor's permission.

If you are a new student to the Japanese language program at the University of Florida, you must take the placement exam (the registration form is available at https://languages.ufl.edu/academics/llc-languages/japanese-studies/).

The placement exam will be given only on Thursday, January 5th, 2017, from 2:00 – 5:00 p.m. in 160 Pugh Hall. You will be given an appointment for the oral interview as well as the written exam after you register. You must register for this exam with Prof. Uotate (yuotate@ufl.edu) by 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, January 4th. Please see your instructor on the first day of class if you have not already registered for the placement exam.

REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES

1. Preparation for the class

The schedule is designed for you to prepare the materials indicated for a given date BEFORE the class meets. You are expected to come to class well-prepared so that you will be ready to participate in communication activities in a meaningful context with your instructor and classmates. Read the assigned pages carefully, listen to CD, watch the video in the lab, and bring any questions you had while studying for the class since they may benefit your classmates as well! You are expected to study for the course at least two hours for each lesson. These two hours include time for you to 1) read the textbook carefully, 2) do the textbook activities, 3) complete the homework, 4) memorize vocabulary and kanji, 5) memorize the required dialogues on the syllabus, and 6) review materials. Completing homework alone is not sufficient preparation to perform well in class. Advanced Japanese has a different course format without the Yookoso text, which you completed in Beginning and Intermediate Japanese. Although the class meets only 3 times a week, it requires strong commitment and effort to be successful. If you do not know how to prepare for the class, please ask the instructor or refer to the study guide in the course packet.

2. Attendance and participation

Attendance and active participation in class are mandatory and will be recorded at each class session. Foreign language learning is a cumulative process, and it is very important that you come to all the classes and practice Japanese everyday. Grading criteria for participation will be on a 10 point scale. To receive full participation credit, you must show evidence of preparation for class. However, this is not to say that you cannot make mistakes; trial and error is the only way to learn how to use the language, and you are encouraged to try out the new structures, make errors, and learn from them. Active participation that shows your effort will count towards the participation grade. On the contrary, no participation will seriously hurt your participation grade. You will receive 0 points when you are absent from the class without legitimate reasons.

Grading criteria for class participation

- A+10 = excellent performance; high level of fluency and accuracy
- A 9 = very good/strong performance with some minor weak areas; memorized most materials (vocabulary, kanji, and dialogues); no need to refer to textbook
- B 8 = good performance with some weakness; memorized some materials; occasional need to refer to textbook.
- C 7 = fair performance, but weak in major areas; memorized some materials; occasional need to refer to textbook
- D 6 = poor performance, weak in most areas, refers constantly to textbook
- E 5 = Completely unprepared, or disengaged from class activities
 - 0 = Absent

*In order to get 9 or 10, your overall performance needs to be very good. If your lack of preparation is clear in the area of vocabulary, kanji, and dialogues, it will significantly affect your participation grade (-1 point each).

It is crucial that you attend every class for you to successfully learn Japanese. Please keep in mind that you will have to catch up on a great amount of material if you miss even one day as this class meets only three times a week. If you fall behind in the class, it will be very difficult to catch up. In the event you must miss a class, please contact the instructor prior to the class meeting and have your absence pre-approved, except for documented emergency. You may be excused from the class only if you provide documented evidence (e.g., a letter from the doctor/infirmary, accident/police report, receipt for car repair).

Please be punctual because you may miss important information and distract your classmates. If you are late to class, you will not be given extra time to complete the exams and quizzes. If you are more than three minutes late three times without your instructor's consent, they will be counted as one absence. If you are more than 30 minutes late, it will also be considered as one absence. If your unexcused absences exceed 3 or more, you will lose 3% from the final grade. Your course grade will be lowered by 1% for each class you miss after the 3rd absence. In the event your unexcused absences exceed 5 times, you will automatically fail the course. It is your responsibility to check with your instructor to be certain of the number of absences recorded for you.

If you are late or miss class for any reason, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor or ask your classmates to know what you have missed and what you need to do for the following class day. The power point slides will be uploaded on Sakai and you are responsible for looking at them and for studying what is covered on the day.

3. Japanese speaking policy in class

You have a very limited exposure to Japanese outside of the class, and Advanced Japanese class meets only three times a week. It is very important that you make every use of the precious opportunities to practice, especially speaking, Japanese. Therefore, you are required to speak only Japanese in class will be conducted mainly in Japanese. You will sign an honor pledge to speak only in Japanese in class. Please understand that if the instructor denies permission, it is for a specific reason that will be explained to you after class. A limited amount of English will be used by the instructor to explain grammar in class, at the discretion of the instructor.

It is also very important for you to practice Japanese outside the class, using newly learned grammar structures. In Beginning and Intermediate Japanese, you have learned basic grammar structures. In Advanced Japanese, you will be introduced to various expressions in order to expand your repertoire by learning more academic or sophisticated ways to say things. Your constant efforts to try to use these expressions will improve your Japanese skills significantly.

4. Homework and makeup exam policies

All homework is to be completed, self-corrected, and turned into the instructor at the beginning of the class on the due date it appears on the syllabus. Do not hesitate to ask questions about the homework assigned during class. All homework must be stapled with your name and the date at the top of the first page. The instructor will not accept homework that is not stapled. Put the homework on the instructor's desk before class begins. The homework turned in at the end of the class will be marked late and receive a zero. All of the assigned sections of homework must be completed to receive full credit – no blanks or incomplete sentences. The grading criteria for homework will be on a 5 point scale as shown below. The homework grade is 14% of your final grade.

If you do not turn in homework on the day it is assigned without an official excuse of absence, you will receive a zero for your homework grade that day.

Homework Grading Scale:

- 5 = Completed all assignment sections neatly
- 4 = Completed about 90% of assignment
- 3 = Completed about 75% of assignment
- 2 = Completed about 50% of assignment
- 1 = Completed about 25% of assignment

NO late assignments will be accepted without written evidence of illness or emergency. In case you must miss class on the day that an assignment is due, turn it in ahead of time to receive full credit. If you do not turn in assignments on time, you must submit the homework the following day.

Make-up quizzes or exams may be scheduled ONLY when it was pre-approved by the instructor or in the case of documented illness or emergency. It is your responsibility to contact your instructor immediately after returning to class and schedule make-up quizzes/exams within one class day, or no make-up will be allowed.

• Homework self-correction: You are required to do homework self-correction every day. You must do self-correction in a different color ink so it will be easy for the instructor to see. Please write SC (self corrected) at the top of the first page. If ALL self-corrections are not made to homework, 3 points will be deducted from your homework grade. If you just copy answers without completing homework by yourself fist, you will receive a zero for the homework.

5. Quiz Self-Correction Policy

Upon return of a quiz in class, you are required to do self-correction with extra writing practice – writing each answer 5 times, and turn it in the following day. It is not the instructor's responsibility to remind you of this policy. No late assignments will be accepted. You must attempt to correct ALL errors on quizzes, or 2 pts will be deducted from the quiz score. You must do self-correction in a different color ink (not red) so it will be easy for the instructor to see. Please write SC (self corrected) at the top of the first page. Do not staple the self-corrected quiz to the regular homework or self-correction homework. For kanji quizzes, when you have missed any kanji/furigana (kanji reading in hiragana), you must write each kanji or compound 5 times.

6. Memorization of Assigned Vocabulary, Kanji, and Dialogues

Memorizing vocabulary and studying its kanji daily is very important to develop proficiency at an advanced level. Vocabulary knowledge is one of the key components for strong performance. Your participation grade and quiz and exam scores depend on your good daily study habits. In JPN 3410-3411 you will frequently have vocabulary quizzes and need to be able to recognize vocabulary written in kanji.

Dialogue memorization will help you establish a basic framework for conversation including the target grammar which can then be applied in different contexts. Your instructor will evaluate your dialogue memorization based on accuracy and fluency.

It is imperative that you learn the vocabulary and memorize the dialogue by listening to the textbook audio program in order to develop good pronunciation and intonation. If you miss vocabulary and dialogue memorization assignments, it will significantly affect your participation grade.

7. Learning kanji

If you have not taken the sequence of Beginning and Intermediate Japanese at UF, you are strongly advised to review kanji that has been introduced so far. You can find a list of previously introduced kanji in the course packet.

Knowledge of kanji is essential for you to become a competent reader of authentic reading materials in Japanese. The learning of kanji is a cumulative process, and it is your responsibility to retain your kanji knowledge over time. To help retention of kanji knowledge, you are expected to use all kanji that has been covered in class in every assignment, quiz, or exam. On exams, you must use kanji you have previously learned to receive full credit.

TO SUPPLEMENT KANJI LEARNING:

a. NIHONGO SO-MATOME JLPT N3: KANJI:

This textbook introduces helpful kanji and kanji compounds to remember for JLPT (Japanese Language Proficiency Test) N3 test. Your knowledge will be quizzed every week in class. You will have an opportunity to take mock-JLPT N3 level at the end of the spring semester to identify your language level. If you are majoring in Japanese, it is mandatory to take this test in order to graduate. Knowing many kanji helps you achieve a higher score on this test. For more details, please visit the following website: http://www.ilpt.jp/e/

b. KANJI ACTIVITY:

You will be assigned groups for kanji activities to be presented in class. You are to brainstorm and come up with a 10-minute kanji activity exercise to conduct in class. You are to create exercises that require students to read as well as write kanji, in addition to understanding the meaning. Please create an activity that everyone in the class is engaged in. For example, if you have a team activity and a few students are at the blackboard writing kanji, all students seated should also be engaged in the activity of writing the kanji. You may use PowerPoint presentations if you wish, but the emphasis is on making learning kanji fun. There are various games you can create based on such formats as Jeopardy, bingo, concentration, etc. You will be given a group grade for your activity (5 points worth of the homework grade), and the audience members will also be evaluated on their preparation for this activity. The audience is expected to come to class to be able to read and write all kanji in the activity.

8. Conversation Clinic

Students can practice speaking Japanese with the instructor at individualized conversation clinics during office hours. One session is about 15 minutes long. This is a good opportunity to practice your conversation skills in Japanese and to ask questions to your instructor.

9. Cell phones and personal computers policy

You must turn off your cell phones and put them away prior to the beginning of class. Personal computers are not to be used during class unless specific permission is granted by the instructor.

10. Accommodations for students with disabilities

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Disability Resources office. The Dean's office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor in advance of the beginning of class.

11. Religious holidays

Students and faculty must cooperate to allow each person to observe the holy days of his or her faith. Following UF policy, a student must inform the faculty member of the religious observances of his or her faith that will conflict with class attendance, with tests or examinations, or with other class activities prior to the class or occurrence of that test or activity. No make-ups will be given after a holiday unless arrangements were made in advance with the instructor.

12. Academic Honesty

The University of Florida statement regarding academic honesty and more specifically "giving and/or receiving unauthorized aid on student's work" reads as follows:

- · Giving information includes, but is not limited to, allowing other students to use or copy work or answers to exam questions either while the exam is being given or after having taken the exam.
- · Further, the taking of information includes, but is not limited to, copying from the answers provided in the book or ancillary materials, copying from another student's paper, using information already written in books, or asking anyone, students or not to review and/or correct assignments.
- · Students found in violation of this policy will be referred to the appropriate administration for appropriate action according to the student judicial process.

Note: Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available at: https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results.

Note: It could be more challenging to have high exam scores in JPN 3410-3411. Classroom performance, homework, and quizzes will be very important to bring up your final grade. If you need help, do not hesitate to communicate with your instructor and visit during office hours for advice.

If you are a current major or minor in Japanese, or you think you might want to major or minor in Japanese in the future, you cannot use the S/U option. It is the student's responsibility to check the deadline to sign up for the S/U grade option and ask your instructor to sign it well in advance of the deadline.

Cumulative Final Exam: All material studied this term

*PLEASE NOTE: We have petitioned for an assembly final exam for all sections of JPN 3411, but we will not receive notification of the date, time, or location until March. Please disregard the information concerning the final exam on the current Registrar's schedule. We will make an announcement as soon as possible. As we may be scheduled to take the final exam on the last day and time slot of the exam period, do not plan to leave Gainesville before the end of the final exam period (Friday, April 28, 2017, 5:00 p.m.).

For kanji quizzes, when you have missed any kanji/furigana (kanji reading in hiragana), you must write each kanji or compound 5 times.

6. Memorization of Assigned Vocabulary, Kanji, and Dialogues

Memorizing vocabulary and studying its kanji daily is very important to develop proficiency at an advanced level. Vocabulary knowledge is one of the key components for strong performance. Your participation grade and quiz and exam scores depend on your good daily study habits. In JPN 3410-3411 you will frequently have vocabulary quizzes and need to be able to recognize vocabulary written in kanji.

Dialogue memorization will help you establish a basic framework for conversation including the target grammar which can then be applied in different contexts. Your instructor will evaluate your dialogue memorization based on accuracy and fluency.

It is imperative that you learn the vocabulary and memorize the dialogue by listening to the textbook audio program in order to develop good pronunciation and intonation. If you miss vocabulary and dialogue memorization assignments, it will significantly affect your participation grade.

7. Learning kanji

If you have not taken the sequence of Beginning and Intermediate Japanese at UF, you are strongly advised to review kanji that has been introduced so far. You can find a list of previously introduced kanji in the course packet.

Knowledge of kanji is essential for you to become a competent reader of authentic reading materials in Japanese. The learning of kanji is a cumulative process, and it is your responsibility to retain your kanji knowledge over time. To help retention of kanji knowledge, you are expected to use all kanji that has been covered in class in every assignment, quiz, or exam. On exams, you must use kanji you have previously learned to receive full credit.

TO SUPPLEMENT KANJI LEARNING:

a. NIHONGO SO-MATOME JLPT N3: KANJI:

This textbook introduces helpful kanji and kanji compounds to remember for JLPT (Japanese Language Proficiency Test) N3 test. Your knowledge will be quizzed every week in class. You will have an opportunity to take mock-JLPT N3 level at the end of the spring semester to identify your language level. If you are majoring in Japanese, it is mandatory to take this test in order to graduate. Knowing many kanji helps you achieve a higher score on this test. For more details, please visit the following website: http://www.ilpt.jp/e/

b. KANJI ACTIVITY:

You will be assigned groups for kanji activities to be presented in class. You are to brainstorm and come up with a 10-minute kanji activity exercise to conduct in class. You are to create exercises that require students to read as well as write kanji, in addition to understanding the meaning. Please create an activity that everyone in the class is engaged in. For example, if you have a team activity and a few students are at the blackboard writing kanji, all students seated should also be engaged in the activity of writing the kanji. You may use PowerPoint presentations if you wish, but the emphasis is on making learning kanji fun. There are various games you can create based on such formats as Jeopardy, bingo, concentration, etc. You will be given a group grade for your activity (5 points worth of the homework grade), and the audience members will also be evaluated on their preparation for this activity. The audience is expected to come to class to be able to read and write all kanji in the activity.

8. Conversation Clinic

Students can practice speaking Japanese with the instructor at individualized conversation clinics during office hours. One session is about 15 minutes long. This is a good opportunity to practice your conversation skills in Japanese and to ask questions to your instructor.

9. Cell phones and personal computers policy

You must turn off your cell phones and put them away prior to the beginning of class. Personal computers are not to be used during class unless specific permission is granted by the instructor.

10. Accommodations for students with disabilities

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Disability Resources office. The Dean's office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor in advance of the beginning of class.

11. Religious holidays

Students and faculty must cooperate to allow each person to observe the holy days of his or her faith. Following UF policy, a student must inform the faculty member of the religious observances of his or her faith that will conflict with class attendance, with tests or examinations, or with other class activities prior to the class or occurrence of that test or activity. No make-ups will be given after a holiday unless arrangements were made in advance with the instructor.

12. Academic Honesty

The University of Florida statement regarding academic honesty and more specifically "giving and/or receiving unauthorized aid on student's work" reads as follows:

- · Giving information includes, but is not limited to, allowing other students to use or copy work or answers to exam questions either while the exam is being given or after having taken the exam.
- · Further, the taking of information includes, but is not limited to, copying from the answers provided in the book or ancillary materials, copying from another student's paper, using information already written in books, or asking anyone, students or not to review and/or correct assignments.
- · Students found in violation of this policy will be referred to the appropriate administration for appropriate action according to the student judicial process.

Note: Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available at: https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results.

Note: It could be more challenging to have high exam scores in JPN 3410-3411. Classroom performance, homework, and quizzes will be very important to bring up your final grade. Missing project, or any other assignments could hurt your grade greatly. You will fill out a mid-term grade report twice during the semester so you can keep track of your performance.

If you need help, do not hesitate to communicate with your instructor and visit during office hours for advice.

If you elect the S/U option, you must make a composite score of 73% to receive an S in this class. If you are a current major or minor in Japanese, or you think you might want to major or minor in Japanese in the future, you cannot use the S/U option. It is the student's responsibility to check the deadline to sign up for the S/U grade option and ask your instructor to sign it well in advance of the deadline.

Cumulative Final Exam: All material studied this term

*PLEASE NOTE: We have petitioned for an assembly final exam for all sections of JPN 3411, but we will not receive notification of the date, time, or location until March. Please disregard the information concerning the final exam on the current Registrar's schedule. We will make an announcement as soon as possible. As we may be scheduled to take the final exam on the last day and time slot of the exam period, do not plan to leave Gainesville before the end of the final exam period (Friday, April 28, 2017, 5:00 p.m.).
