Course description: Welcome back! Vítám vás zpátky na kurzu češtiny! Whether your interest in Czech is social, academic or professional, knowledge of the Czech language will enrich your interaction with Czechs and Czech culture. This course aims to develop your communicative abilities in Czech—reading, writing, listening and speaking—while acquainting you with various aspects of Czech life. After the first-year sequence, you be able to converse with Czechs about your daily life, opinions, and interests. You will also gain the skills and strategies to begin studying sources related to your academic or professional interests.

Beyond CZE 1130-1131: Since UF offers study abroad opportunities in the Czech Republic, you can continue your language and/or cultural studies overseas. UF's minor and certificate programs in East Central European Studies and European Union Studies and new major in International Studies will also allow you to combine your interest in Czech with a number of disciplines. For students continuing Czech language next year or this summer, you may be eligible to win a federal Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) scholarship which covers tuition and provides a substantial stipend ($5-15K, depending on status). See the last page below for links & program deadlines!

Prerequisites: CZE1130 or permission from instructor.

Required materials: Available in UF bookstore or Amazon.com, etc.

- Susan Kresin et al., Čeština hrou (Czech for Fun). Textbook and CDs. New York: McGraw-Hill Primis Custom Publishing, 2000. 2nd edition. (ISBN 007 2442980 for the book alone and ISBN 9780072455472 for the book+CD packet; new edition is red; old edition is black.)
- Susan Kresin et al., Čeština hrou (Czech for Fun). Workbook. New York: McGraw-Hill Primis Custom Publishing, 1997. (ISBN: 007 0350132)
- A three-ring binder to hold the handouts you print from the website or receive in class.

Course requirements (explained below)

Class Participation – 10%

Homework – 15%

Hour 5 Modules – 10%

Quizzes and Tests – 55*%

Final Exam – 10%*

Class Participation – 10%

Speaking/understanding a living language is much like playing a sport or musical instrument: the more you practice, the better you'll perform. While cramming can initially work in 1130, it's a recipe for disaster in 1131! To ensure your brain and body respond when cued, it's best to practice a little each day!

To encourage daily practice & good habits, I will award participation points for the following:

- Attentiveness during class and overall engagement in course materials;
- Being an attentive and responsive partner during pair/group work;
- Preparation for class as demonstrated by readiness for class activities (Did you read about new concepts in HW prior to their introduction in class? Can you produce topical vocab without delay?)
- Consistent use of Czech in class.

I deduct participation points for the opposite behaviors:

- Inattentiveness, lack of engagement: texting, FBing, doing work for other classes, zoning out, etc.
- Being disruptive: late & loud entrances, loud wrappers, cell phones not on silent, etc.
- Being an unresponsive partner in pair/group work, failure to engage in assigned pair/group task.
- Being unprepared for class activities: unfamiliar with points from HW, slow to recall expressions.
- Defaulting to English; unwillingness or inability to communicate in Czech.

Don't be afraid of making mistakes! They are a natural part of the learning process.

Absence policy -- I expect you to arrive on time every day. If you must miss class due to an excused absence (family emergency, illness, religious holiday or participation in an approved academic / athletic event), please let me know (in advance when possible) and be prepared to provide follow-up documentation. Note that it is your responsibility to find out what you missed while absent and to make up any missed work. Repeated unexcused absences will be reflected in course grade as below:

1-5 absences – proportionate % subtracted from Class Participation grade
6+ absences – ½ letter subtracted from overall course grade (i.e., A- > B+)
Arriving 10 or more minutes late on 4 occasions = 1 absence.

Homework – 15%

Homework is the next step to succeeding in this course. Nightly homework is essential to strong performance in (and outside of) class, and it's an excellent opportunity to practice concepts presented in class and receive feedback penalty-free. If you do a little each night--and do it thoughtfully, studying for exams shouldn't be a chore. HW should take about an hour a night; if you finish earlier, review vocab!

You will receive a handout every Monday with the tentative homework schedule for that week. Homework is most effective if done when it is assigned, so all work received more than 2 days after it is due will be downgraded by half and NO late work will be accepted after the respective unit exam. Please write the page number(s) and exercise number(s) on each assignment you turn in along with the original due date. (Thank you! This helps with recordkeeping!)

Homework will be marked and scored according to the following criteria:

- + Shows much skill and/or creativity. 1.25 points.
- ✓ Average to good; satisfies requirement in full. Most work will receive this grade. 1 point.
- L Submitted 3 or more days after due date: .5 points. After respective unit exam: 0 points.
- Redo indicated section resubmit with entire day's work for credit. See teacher for help. 0 points.
- I Incomplete. Complete missing portion & resubmit with entire day's work for credit. 0 points.

New in 2020: No student will earn more than 100% (15% of total course grade) for homework.

Hour 5 Modules (See “Modules” on Canvas) – 10%

Since our 5-credit course meets only 4 hours per week, you will find additional assignments and activities in our Canvas Modules to complete each week. Some modules will invite you to engage Czech culture “virtually”; other modules may focus on skills (listening, reading, writing) that students do best on their own timeline (rather than together in class). It’s highly recommended that you complete them on the days when we don’t have class (Friday or Saturday) to ensure adequate preparation and maximize progress, but it’s ultimately up to you when you complete them—as long as they’re done by the weekly deadline. (In the event of longer or more complicated tasks, you’ll have an extended deadline.) Half credit will be given for modules submitted 2 days late; no credit granted for work submitted after 2 days.

Quizzes & tests – 55%*

There will be several scheduled quizzes, about six or seven unit tests, and possibly some pop-quizzes (if needed) to keep you on your toes. Combined, your quizzes will have roughly the same point value as one exam, and I will drop your lowest quiz grade (or lowest two grades in the event of 12 or more quizzes).

Content: You will be tested on the material reviewed in homework and in class. Most unit exams contain both written and oral components: grammar and vocabulary sections are graded discretely--based on the number of errors; oral skills and writing are graded more holistically--based on how successfully you execute a given task. In discrete sections, spelling errors count as a 1/2 point, and grammar and vocabulary mistakes count as 1 point. Grading criteria for oral and writing sections will be provided prior to the first exam. There is no midterm exam.

Make-ups: If you miss a test or quiz for an excused reason (see "Absences"), you should contact me to schedule a make-up. Advance notice is required for make-up privileges in the case of a non-medical, non-emergency or non-university-approved event.

Good student bonus: Students who have completed all unit homework and have no unit absences can self-correct their unit exam and then submit their corrections for extra credit. In this way students can regain up to 50% of the points they originally missed. (For ex: a 70% will be raised to a max of 85%, provided all corrections are accurate.) Quizzes and take-home or open-book exams cannot be self-corrected for additional points.

Final exam – 10%. Wednesday, April 29, 2020 from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM.*

*The final exam is optional: you may take it if you want or need to boost your grade. If you choose not to take the final exam, your exam/quiz grade will be worth 65% of your course grade rather than 55%.

The final exam is cumulative, incorporating thematic topics and grammar points from the entire semester. The final will assess reading, writing, listening and speaking skills; more details to be given toward the end of the semester. If you choose to take the final exam, you must notify me at least 48 hours before our exam time!

Need a grade boost? Optional extra credit presentation in Czech – up to 1%

You may choose from a list of Czech cultural topics/figures, or you may choose a topic of your own subject to my approval. Further details will be provided on Canvas. An "A" referát grade will raise your final class grade by 1%; a "B" by .50% (with +/- figuring in between); no extra credit for lower grades.

Grading Scale. Grades are based on the following point system:

No A+ grades available at UF		87-89.99%	B+	77-79.99%	C+
93-100%	A	83-86.99%	B	73-76.99%	C
90-92.99%	A-	80-82.99%	B-	etc.

Find more UF grade info here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

Slavic Club: There is now a student-run Slavic Club on that organizes cultural activities and participates in campus/community events (filling the role of our past Czech-Slovak club). If interested, let me know!

Office hours: Even if you don't have questions or concerns about the course, feel free to stop by to read a dialog aloud or chat in Czech. It's an excellent way to sharpen your conversational skills.

Czech coffee/lunch hour: An optional hour for Czech students and local Czechs & Slovaks is in the works, when all can gather & chit chat informally (at any level). I'll email you about meeting times soon.

Academic Honesty: All students commit to the Honesty Pledge whereby "[o]n all work submitted for credit by students at the university, the following pledge is either required or implied: On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." Please familiarize yourself with the Honor Code--and consequences for violating it--here:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/1617/advising/info/student-honor-code.aspx>.

Please note that using Google Translate (or similar tools) to write your assignments constitutes "unauthorized aid" (and usually yields glaring errors!).

ADA Accommodations: Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodation should 1) register with and provide documentation to UF's Disability Resource Center (DRC) in 0001 Building 0020 (Reid Hall) and 2) bring or email me an Accommodation Letter from the DRC indicating what type of accommodation you need (ideally early—before quizzes/exams). For further information, contact the DRC at (352) 352-392-8565 or accessUF@ufsa.ufl.edu or visit the DRC web site: <https://drc.dso.ufl.edu/students/accommodation-letters/>

Online course evaluations: At the end of the semester, you are expected to provide anonymous feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>." I thank you in advance for your input and any comments; they are extremely important in helping me improve my teaching!
