COURSE INFORMATION:

Course Description:

This semester we will continue to study verb constructions, grammatical rules and idiomatic expressions in Hebrew. We will also explore written texts, songs and videos that will tell you more about Hebrew culture and tradition. But more importantly, you will be encouraged this semester to express through your essays, group assignments and oral presentation your own approach to Hebrew as a language of further study, research, career opportunities or cultural exploration. I would like to encourage you to imagine how you might wish to use Hebrew in the future – and to use this Hebrew course as an opportunity for thinking about language and culture in general. At this point you have already devoted a great deal of effort to studying Hebrew – this is a good opportunity to think how you might want to apply the knowledge that you acquire in this course later on.

Course Objectives:

Our goal is to develop skills and knowledge while giving equal weight to the following four areas of competence:

- 1. Speaking:
 - a. Personal introduction and short conversation in context (in the market, restaurant, apartment etc.)
 - b. Correct grammar and pronunciation
 - c. Common expressions and idiomatic language

- 2. Writing
 - a. Clear handwriting and beginning to type in Hebrew (on a computer)
 - b. Creating correct sentences and short paragraphs.

c. Writing short compositions (up to 80 words).

3. Reading

Requirements:

Attendance. REGULAR ATTENDANCE IN CLASS IS REQUIRED. If you have no absences, your final grade will increase by a half a point. 5-8 absences will result in lowering your grade half a point. 9 – 12 absences will result in lowering your with one point. 13 absences will result in failing the class. Since class meetings are short and typically involve active student's participations, tardiness is especially disturbing. Being tardy three times is equivalent to one absence.

For an excused absence: Please do not contact the instructor. Contact the office of the Dean of Students at umatter@ufl.edu. The office of the Dean of Students will alert your instructor (and your other instructors for the relevant dates).

Participation. YOUR HOMEWORK AND PARTICIPATION THROUGHOUT THE SEMESTER WILL COUNT FOR 5% OF YOUR FINAL GRADE. Full participation means that students come to class fully prepared and ready to work. You must prepare all written and oral homework and be ready to engage with the material covered in class in an alert and enthusiastic manner. Students who do not prepare oral homework (by learning vocabulary and reviewing structures covered in class), students who do not participate fully in group activities or speak English in class will receive a greatly reduced participation grade.

N.B. Active participation in class is essential. Factors considered in this portion of your grade include: a) attendance b) punctuality c) preparation d) initiative e) volunteering in class f) use of spoken Hebrew g) positive attitude, and i) in-class assignments. There is no make-up for class participation.

Make-up Policy. Except in the case of certified illness or other UF accepted excuse (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>), there will be no make-up option for missed exams or late assignments. Assignments cannot be resubmitted for a higher grade.
