

UF IN LEIPZIG

GERMAN LANGUAGE | SUMMER B: JULY 8-AUGUST 6, 2022

COLLEGE INFORMATION

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences

Department of Languages, Literatures, & Cultures
Courses are taught by UF faculty

PROGRAM

The focus of this program is an intensive, intermediate German language class which is intended to bring learners toward the B1-level in all areas of communicative and intercultural competence. This includes speaking, listening, reading and writing. Like the intermediate courses offered at UF, the courses offered abroad will take a communicative approach to learning about the German language and cultural aspects of the German-speaking world. Students will engage with a variety of authentic texts and materials, complete written and oral portfolio tasks, keep a reflective journal on intercultural learning experiences, give presentations, and participate in a variety of cultural activities and experiential learning opportunities.

LOCATION

Leipzig, Germany is a vibrant university city offering a rich cultural, musical, and architectural history as well as a variety of academic institutions.

EXCURSIONS

Program excursions will include various homework activities such as visiting museums, libraries, doing neighborhood scavenger hunts, etc.; visits to various NGOs and other institutions; and planned cultural excursions to theater, opera, automobile industry, and/or soccer/sporting events. There will also be a group excursion to Berlin with a scheduled tour of the Reichstag and a boat ride & a group excursion to Dresden with visits to museums such as the Green Vault.

HOUSING

Students will share rooms in a hostel for the duration of the program.
