JPN1131 Beginning Japanese 2 Summer 2022 Course Syllabus

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course is a continuation of JPN 1130 Beginning Japanese 1. We cover "Genki I" Lessons 8 through 14 of the textbook series GENKI I-II: An Integrated Course in Elementary Japanese. It is designed to develop students' four language skills in listening, speaking, reading and writing. Moreover, this course will prepare students to demonstrate their proficiencies across the three communication modes: interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational. By the end of the semester, you will have learned approximately 100 additional kanji. You will also learn to state opinions, report quotations, give reasons, convey intentions and desires, as well as express comparison, probability, ability, and more. By the end of the first semester, students are expected to reach a novice-mid, or higher, level of proficiency as defined by the ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) Proficiency Guidelines. You must attain a letter grade of C or higher, which is a composite score of 73 or higher, or receive instructor's permission to continue in JPN 2230 Intermediate Japanese 1.

REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES

Required Hardware and Software

To access this institute in Canvas, you will need access to the Internet and a supported browser.

1. Attendance and Participation (13%)

1.1. Preparation for the class

If you prepare for class well, you can fully enjoy class activities. Quickly developing good study habits is the key to your success in this course.

The daily schedule is designed for you to prepare the materials indicated for a given date BEFORE the class meetings. You are expected to come to class well prepared so that you will be ready to participate in communication activities in a meaningful context with your instructor and classmates.

This is an intensive language course for which you will receive five credit hours. Therefore, it is very important that you put a great deal of effort into daily preparation, for 4.5-6 hours every day outside of the class. These two hours include time for you to:

How to Study for Class Everyday

Before Class - Preparation	Class	After Class - Check
1. Read the textbook carefully. 2. Complete Prep HW. 3. Complete other homework assignments. 5. Practice the assigned dialogue. 6. Practice vocabulary and hiragana, katakana, and kanji. 7. Review materials.	➡ A variety of activities using Japanese	➡ Review materials. 4. Practice listening and speaking with the audio files.

Develop good study habits at the beginning of the semester. If you have any questions while studying for the class, please bring those to class. Your questions may benefit your classmates as well. If you do not know how to prepare for the class, please ask the instructor or your classmates.

1.2. Class participation

As it is explained above, it is very important that you come to class and practice Japanese every day, and we will record your class performance at each class session, using a daily grade rubric.

Grading criteria for attendance and participation (daily grade)

Four Criteria for Daily Performance (T.A.L.K) Rubric
T - Talk (Talks in Japanese; tries to communicate; is relevant to the task) A - Accuracy & PREPARATION (Particularly with regard to the objective and content of the lesson) L - Listen (Listens attentively; is on task) K - Kind

You can see the detailed descriptions of the rubric on Canvas. To receive a high participation grade, you must show evidence of preparation for class. However, this is not to say that you cannot make mistakes; trial and error is the only way to learn how to use the language, and you are encouraged to try out the new structures, make errors, and learn from them. Active participation that shows your effort will count towards the participation grade. On the contrary, no participation will seriously hurt your participation grade. You will receive 0 points when you are absent from a class.

1.3. Japanese speaking policy in class

You have a very limited exposure to Japanese outside of the class, and it is very important that you make every use of the precious opportunities to speak Japanese in class. Therefore, you are required to speak only Japanese in class. You will sign an honor pledge at the beginning of the term regarding speaking only Japanese in class. You have been explicitly taught how to ask permission to speak English (英語(えいご)で質問(しつもん)があります。 "I have a question in English." Or 英語(えいご)で話(はな)してもよろしいでしょうか。 "May I speak in English?"), if it becomes absolutely necessary. Please understand that if the instructor denies permission, it is for a specific reason that will be explained to you after class. A limited amount of English will be used by the instructor to explain grammar in class, at the discretion of the instructor.

1.4. Absences and tardiness

As it is explained above, you will receive 0 points for daily grade when you are absent from a class without being officially excused. At the 2nd unexcused absence, you will lose 2% from the final grade. Every unexcused absence thereafter results in minus 2% deducted from your final grade. In the event your unexcused absences exceed 4 times, you will automatically fail the course. Absences will be excused only in accordance with UF policy. Acceptable documented excuses include illness, religious holidays, and military obligation: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

For an excused absence: You need to contact your instructor regarding your absence and any accommodation requests preferably in advance and submit the Instructor Notification form with an appropriate documentation at https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications/. Students who are registered with the Dean of Students office and Disability Resource Center are responsible for providing related documentation.

Please be punctual because you may miss important information and distract your classmates. If you are late to class, you will not be given extra time to complete the exams and quizzes. If you are late, even one second, three times without your instructor's consent, they will be counted as one absence. If you are more than 30 minutes late, it will also be considered as one absence.

If you are late or miss class for any reason, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor or ask your classmates to know what you have missed and what you need to do for the following day.

1.5. Policy regarding make-up quizzes or exams

Make-up quizzes or exams may be scheduled ONLY when pre-approved by the instructor, or in the case of documented illness or emergency. It is your responsibility to contact your instructor immediately after returning to class and schedule make-up quizzes/exams within 2 class days, or no make-up will be allowed.

2. Homework (15%)

We can categorize homework into two groups by their submission deadlines as below.

Submission Deadlines	Homework Assignments
By 11:59pm on the day before class	☐ Prep HW Review ☐ HW
Before class	☐ Worksheets ☐ Learning Support Log, Flipgrid, etc.

Please see specific deadlines indicated in the schedule and on Canvas. No late assignments will be accepted without an approved absence from the office of the Dean of Students as it is explained in Section 1.4 above regarding absences and tardiness. Therefore, if you have an official excuse to be absent, please submit the Instructor Notification form with an appropriate documentation at https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications/, your instructor will accommodate you with the new assignment submission date. If you know that you need to miss class without an official excuse, you may still notify your instructor in advance. In such a case, you are encouraged to turn in the assignments for the day of your unexcused absence before their due date/time for full credits.
Your instructor checks your assignments and provides individualized feedback daily. To do your best, it is essential to check your grades on Canvas every day and take advantage of the learnings in the feedback given.

2.1. Prep HW (preparation homework)

Read the textbook carefully and complete Prep HW first before doing other homework assignments. Make sure that you focus on materials of the day which is indicated in the name of its Canvas Quiz. Prep HW will give you a good starting foundation of the specific materials you are going to learn and practice at home and then in the classroom.

For Question 1 of Prep HW, please don't write the same thing over and over. For example, you cannot write, "I learned how to use this new structure. The most important is to keep practicing this structure and incorporate it in daily conversations in Japanese." every time.

2.2. Daily HW (worksheets and other homework)

If you have a specific question, please make a note of it. If you want to receive feedback from your instructor on your answer for a specific homework item, please underline it and put a question mark "?" in a different color pen.

You may purchase worksheet packet at Target Copy <https://notes.target-copy.com/catalog.cgi> or print out each worksheet page on your own. You can find both grammar and kanji worksheets on Canvas.

Grading Criteria for Daily Homework
1pt. =	All assigned sections of the homework must be completed using the new patterns without any blanks or incomplete sentences.
0 pt. =	You will NOT get a point if your homework is late or has missing or incomplete sections.

Note that 1pt. is the maximum point you can receive for each homework item. In addition to on-time delivery of assignments, quality will also be evaluated. There is no partial point.

3. Quiz (12%)

We have a quiz almost daily on vocabulary and kanji. Create a routine to study vocabulary and Japanese characters every day, for example, using digital flashcards such as Quizlet and Anki. You can remember new materials more easily and effectively by encountering them frequently, especially when they have a meaningful context. When you learn Japanese characters, put them in words and sentences in context.

3.1. Quiz self-correction (bonus point)

Upon receiving a graded quiz, you may do self-correction and turn it in following day. 1 point will be added to the quiz score if you can:

(a) correct ALL the errors on quizzes; and
(b) practice missed words, kanji compounds, etc. 3 times each.

Please write SC (self-corrected) at the top and submit it with your original quiz.

4. Other Course Components

Please see below for other course components: lesson tests, a midterm exam, a final exam, and four oral assessments.

4.1. Lesson test (25%)
