Jump to Today | Edit

Welcome to GER 2225 Online Intermediate German I

*As of the academic year 2022-2023, the six-credit-hours earned in the Online Intermediate German Sequence GER 2225 and GER 2226 will count towards the 15credit requirement for a Minor in German.

3 credit hours

GER 2225 Online Intermediate German I is the first semester of a two-semester Online Intermediate German sequence that includes GER 2226 Online Intermediate German II (which is offered in the spring semester). GER 2225 develops language comprehension, production, and translation skills in work on German texts with various topics (historical, scientific, medical, artistic, etc.) and via online writing tasks and speaking exercises in biweekly synchronous student-instructor meetings, with the goal of consolidating proficiencies at the B1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Fall 2022

Student-Instructor ZOOM Meeting Time: Students will meet in groups synchronously with the instructor on a weekly basis to work on pronunciation and speaking during a ca. half-hour period on Thursdays at 4:05pm in Zoom: https://ufl.zoom.us/j/6720324187. Synchronous student-instructor meetings will have a Q&A format, with students expected to respond in German to possible different kinds of questions about the assigned texts as well as to elaborate independently on preset topics that have to be prepared in advance.

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. Will Hasty: 263a Dauer Hall hasty@ufl.edu

OFFICE HOURS: Tuesdays 6th and 7th Periods, 12:50-2:45PM. Appointments during this time in Zoom (https://ufl.zoom.us/j/6720324187 (Links to an external site.)) are possible but need to be made in advance.

Students can message the instructor using the Canvas Inbox to schedule an appointment during office hours. Please allow 24 hours for a response. Questions posted over the weekend will typically not receive a response until the beginning of the following week.

COURSE WEBSITE: https://ufl.instructure.com/courses/402872

COURSE COMMUNICATIONS: For any course-related questions, students should check the "Start Here" section. If a student has problems with the technology tools used in the Canvas course, they should contact the UF Computing Help Desk in the HUB. Private questions should be sent to the instructor through the Canvas Inbox tool (this would include questions about grades, late work, etc.).

MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES (REQUIRED): You MUST have a headset with microphone and a web camera for this course. The cost for such a microphone ranges from $10.00 - $50.00, and the cost of a web camera is similar. These can be purchased at most electronics stores, online, or at the UF Bookstore.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Like the GER 1125-GER 1126 "Discover German" beginning sequence, the 6-credit intermediate course sequence GER 2225 and GER 2226 is webbased and offered on a distance-learning format. There are no regular classroom meetings. The course provides instructional and practice materials in various forms that allow students to learn on their own. Students have weekly assignments and meet biweekly with their instructor in Zoom to work on speaking and pronunciation.

GER 2225 is an online version of the classroom GER 2200 Intermediate German. However, whereas GER 2200 is designed as a continuation of the regular classroom-based GER 1130 and GER 1131, GER 2225 is designed as an online continuation of the online beginning German sequence GER 1125 and GER 1126 ("Discover German"). In GER 2225, students focus more on reading, writing, and translating in an online working environment, though speaking and listening comprehension skills are also regularly practiced at the B1-level.

The German 'Grammar Cruncher' Online Language Learning Application developed by UF's Center for Instructional Technology & Training

If you enjoy and benefit from a more flexible online learning format, and have self-discipline in your study habits, GER 2225 "Online Intermediate German I" may be a good choice for you. If you have taken any one-year-long beginning German sequence elsewhere (i.e. 10 total credit hours of beginning German), you may take GER 2225. You should be aware that GER 2225 is designed principally as a continuation of UF's Online "Discover German" Sequence.

Students with some experience and familiarity with online language-culture instruction may find adapting to the online format of GER 2225 easy. Some students may find the online format difficult and challenging if they are not used to self-directed language-culture study.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES: In GER 2225 Online Intermediate German I students transition from the A2 towards the B1 proficiency level as defined in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Corresponding to the B1 Proficiency levels as goals, which in some contexts are defined as "independent language user," we rely in this course on students taking the initiative in the language-culture learning process. In GER 2226 Online Intermediate German II students consolidate B1 level proficiency and establish strong foundations for working in the direction of a B2 level proficiency level as defined in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) (Links to an external site.).

HOW THIS COURSE RELATES TO THE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES IN THE GERMAN PROGRAM: GER 2225 and GER 2226 build a strong core knowledge of the German language, which students may further develop in more advanced, upper-division courses in German Studies.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: By using a variety of teaching and learning tools of the course management system, students are provided with the necessary information and tools to practice their language skills within the performance and cultural contexts set forth in the weekly assignments. The materials and tools each week help students to develop speaking, reading, listening comprehension and writing skills.

Course Textbook:

Purchase e-book version of Richard Alan Korb, German for Reading Knowledge, 7th edition (Cengage, 2014).

COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE POLICY FOR INSTRUCTOR MEETINGS IN ZOOM (to be arranged): Students should be prepared for these scheduled meetings and use their webcams (because the visual cues that we see are sometimes as important as the words that we hear!). The regular weekly meeting times will be arranged with students at the beginning of the course.

LATE WORK: As a rule, unless a student has a medical excuse or a confirmed family emergency with documentation from the Dean of Students Office, late assessments, assignments, and exams will not be accepted. Any technical difficulties with assignments have a Help Desk ticket number if you plan to request an extension. The extension request MUST be submitted within 24 hours of the technical difficulty.

COURSE TECHNOLOGY: Access to and on-going use of a computer is required for all students. Competency in the basic use of a computer is required. Coursework will require use of a computer and a broadband connection to the Internet.

For additional information on UF College of Liberal Arts and Sciences policy regarding computer requirements you can visit: http://it.clas.ufl.edu/policies/studentcomputer-requirement/ (Links to an external site.)

Students are required to have speakers, a microphone, and a webcam to take the proctored exams and to participate in the group activities and instructor meetings.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATION: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu (Links to an external site.)

Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semesters, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results (Links to an external site.)
